

Tenancy Addendum
Manufactured Home Space Rental
Section 8 Tenant-Based Assistance
Housing Choice Voucher Program
(To be attached to Tenant Lease)

Tenancy Addendum

1. Section 8 Voucher Program

- a. The owner has leased the manufactured home space (space) to the tenant for occupancy by the tenant's family with assistance for a tenancy under the Section 8 housing choice voucher program (voucher program) of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). During the term of the lease, a manufactured home owned by the family will be located on the space. The family will reside in the manufactured home with assistance under the voucher program.
- b. The owner has entered into a Housing Assistance Payments Contract (HAP contract) with the PHA under the voucher program. Under the HAP contract, the PHA will make housing assistance payments to the owner to help the family pay the rent for the space.

2. Lease

- a. The owner has given the PHA a copy of the lease, including any revisions agreed by the owner and the tenant. The owner certifies that the terms of the lease are in accordance with all provisions of the HAP contract, and that the lease includes the tenancy addendum.
- b. The tenant shall have the right to enforce the tenancy addendum against the owner. If there is any conflict between the tenancy addendum and any other provisions of the lease, the language of the tenancy addendum shall control.

3. Use of Manufactured Home

- a. During the lease term, the family will reside in the manufactured home located on the space with assistance under the voucher program.
- b. The composition of the household must be approved by the PHA. The family must promptly inform the PHA of the birth, adoption or court-awarded custody of a child. Other persons may not be added to the household without prior written approval of the owner and the PHA.
- c. The manufactured home space may only be used for residence by the PHA-approved household members. The manufactured home must be the family's only residence. Members of the family may engage in legal profit-making activities incidental to primary use of the manufactured home and space for residence by members of the family.
- d. The tenant may not sublease or let the manufactured home or the space.
- e. The tenant may not assign the lease or transfer the space.

4. Rent to Owner

- a. The initial rent to owner for the space may not exceed the amount approved by the PHA in accordance with HUD requirements.
- b. Changes in the rent to owner for the space shall be determined by the provisions of the lease. However, the owner may not raise the rent during the initial term of the lease.

- c. During the term of the lease (including the initial term of the lease and any extension term), the rent to owner for the space may at no time exceed:

- (1) The reasonable rent for the space as most recently determined or redetermined by the PHA in accordance with HUD requirements, or
- (2) Rent charged by the owner for comparable unassisted spaces in the manufactured home park.

5. Family Payment to Owner

- a. The family is responsible for paying the owner any portion of the rent to owner that is not covered by the PHA housing assistance payment.
- b. Each month, the PHA will make a housing assistance payment to the owner on behalf of the family in accordance with the HAP contract. The amount of the monthly housing assistance payment will be determined by the PHA in accordance with HUD requirements for a manufactured home space tenancy under the Section 8 voucher program.
- c. The monthly housing assistance payment shall be credited against the monthly rent to owner for the space.
- d. The tenant is not responsible for paying the portion of rent to owner covered by the PHA housing assistance payment under the HAP contract between the owner and the PHA. A PHA failure to pay the housing assistance payment to the owner is not a violation of the lease. The owner may not terminate the tenancy for nonpayment of the PHA housing assistance payment.
- e. The owner may not charge or accept, from the family or from any other source, any payment for rent of the space in addition to the rent to owner. The rent to owner for the space includes owner management and maintenance charges for the space, and owner-paid utilities. However, rent to owner does not include tenant-paid utilities.
- f. The owner must immediately return any excess rent payment to the tenant.

6. Other Fees and Charges

- a. Rent to owner does not include cost of any meals or supportive services or furniture which may be provided by the owner.
- b. The owner may not require the tenant or family members to pay charges for any meals or supportive services or furniture which may be provided by the owner. Nonpayment of any such charges is not grounds for termination of tenancy.
- c. The owner may not charge the tenant extra amounts for items customarily included in rent to owner in the locality, or provided at no additional cost to unsubsidized tenants in the premises.

7. Maintenance, Utilities, and Other Services

a. Maintenance

- (1) The manufactured home park and the space shall be operated in accordance with the housing quality standards (HQS). The owner shall provide all maintenance and management services and facilities necessary for compliance with the HQS, including: trash collection and facilities for disposal of waste and refuse. However, the owner is not required to maintain or repair the family's manufactured home.
- (2) The owner shall provide adequate maintenance of roads, walkways and other common areas and facilities, and shall assure that the family has adequate access to the space.

b. Utilities and appliances

- (1) The owner must provide sources and lines for supply of all utilities needed to comply with the HQS, including water, electricity and other necessary utilities.

c. Family damage. The owner is not responsible for a breach of HQS because of damages to the manufactured home by a member of the household.

(2) The owner may terminate the tenancy during the term of the lease if any member of the household is:

- (a) Fleeing to avoid prosecution, or custody or confinement after conviction, for a crime, or attempt to commit a crime, that is a felony under the laws of the place from which the individual flees, or that, in the case of the State of New Jersey, is a high misdemeanor; or
- (b) Violating a condition of probation or parole under Federal or State law.

(3) The owner may terminate the tenancy for criminal activity by a household member in accordance with this section if the owner determines that the household member has committed the criminal activity, regardless of whether the household member has been arrested or convicted for such activity.

(4) The owner may terminate the tenancy during the term of the lease if any member of the household has engaged in abuse of alcohol that threatens the health, safety or right to peaceful enjoyment of the manufactured home park by other residents.

d. Other good cause for termination of tenancy

(1) During the initial lease term, other good cause for termination of tenancy must be something the family did or failed to do.

(2) During the initial lease term or during any extension term, other good cause includes:

- (b) The owner's desire to use the space for personal or family use or for a purpose other than residential rental use; or
- (c) A business or economic reason for termination of the tenancy (such as sale of the property, renovation of the manufactured home park, the owner's desire to rent the space for a higher rent).

e. Eviction by court action. The owner may only evict the tenant from the space by a court action.

f. Owner notice of grounds

- (1) The owner must give the tenant a notice that specifies the grounds for termination of tenancy during the term of the lease. The tenancy does not terminate before the owner has given this notice to the tenant.
- (2) The notice must be given at or before commencement of the eviction action. The notice may be included in or combined with any owner eviction notice.
- (3) The owner must give the PHA a copy of any owner eviction notice at the same time the owner notifies the tenant.
- (4) Eviction notice means a notice to vacate, or a complaint or other initial pleading used to begin an eviction action under State or local law.

9. Lease: Relation to HAP Contract. If the HAP contract terminates for any reason, the lease terminates automatically.
10. PHA Termination of Assistance. The PHA may terminate program assistance for the family for any grounds authorized in accordance with HUD requirements. If the PHA terminates program assistance for the family, the lease terminates automatically.
11. Family Move-Out. The tenant must notify the PHA and the owner before the family moves out of the space.
12. Security Deposit
- The owner may collect a security deposit from the tenant. (However, the PHA may prohibit the owner from collecting a security deposit in excess of private market practice, or in excess of amounts charged by the owner to unassisted tenants. Any such PHA-required restriction must be specified in the HAP contract.)
 - When the family moves out of the space, the owner, subject to State and local law, may use the security deposit, including any interest on the deposit, as reimbursement for any unpaid rent payable by the tenant, any damages or any other amounts that the tenant owes under the lease.
 - The owner must give the tenant a list of all items charged against the security deposit, and the amount of each item. After deducting the amount, if any, used to reimburse the owner, the owner must promptly refund the full amount of the unused balance to the tenant.
 - If the security deposit is not sufficient to cover amounts the tenant owes under the lease, the owner may collect the balance from the tenant.
13. Prohibition of Discrimination. In accordance with applicable equal opportunity statutes, Executive Orders, and regulations, the owner must not discriminate against any person because of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, familial status or disability in connection with the lease.
14. Conflict with Other Provisions of Lease
- The terms of the tenancy addendum are prescribed by HUD in accordance with Federal law and regulation, as a condition for Federal assistance to the tenant and tenant's family under the Section 8 voucher program.
 - In case of any conflict between the provisions of the tenancy addendum as required by HUD, and any other provisions of the lease or any other agreement between the owner and the tenant, the requirements of the HUD-required tenancy addendum shall control.
15. Changes in Lease or Rent
- The tenant and the owner may not make any change in the tenancy addendum. However, if the tenant and the owner agree to any other changes in the lease, such changes must be in writing, and the owner must immediately give the PHA a copy of such changes. The lease, including any changes, must be in accordance with the requirements of the tenancy addendum.
 - In the following cases, tenant-based assistance shall not be continued unless the PHA has approved a new tenancy in accordance with program requirements and has executed a new HAP contract with the owner:
 - If there are any changes in lease requirements governing tenant or owner responsibilities for utilities or appliances;
 - If there are any changes in lease provisions governing the term of the lease;
 - If the family moves to a new unit, even if the unit is in the same building or complex.
 - PHA approval of the tenancy, and execution of a new HAP contract, are not required for agreed changes in the lease other than as specified in paragraph b.
 - The owner must notify the PHA of any changes in the amount of the rent to owner at least sixty days before any such changes go into effect, and the amount of the rent to owner following any such agreed change may not exceed the reasonable rent for the space as most recently determined or redetermined by the PHA in accordance with HUD requirements.
