ELIGIBILITY SCREENER

1. Do you currently have primary responsibility for overseeing at least one doctoral student's research leading to his or her doctorate?

- Only include PhD students or MD/PhD students.

¹ Yes → GO TO A1

⁰ No

2. In the last five years, did you have primary responsibility for overseeing at least one doctoral student's research leading to his or her doctorate?

- Only include PhD students or MD/PhD students.

¹ Yes → GO TO A1

⁰ No

[If NO to BOTH questions, GO TO BOX below, then End.]

BOX. In the last 5 years, about how many doctoral students did you work with informally?

- By "informally," we mean that you did not have official responsibilities in overseeing students' work but you gave them advice, support, or guidance.

B3. As the person who [FILL: “has” if B2 > 0; “had” if B2=0] primary responsibility to oversee doctoral student research, what [FILL: “is” if B2 > 0; “was” if B2=0] your title?

CHECK ONLY ONE ANSWER

- 1 Do not have a title for this responsibility
- 2 Advisor
- 3 Mentor
- 4 Some other title (Please specify)

B4. For how many of these [FILL: B1 NUMBER] students did you consider yourself...

- a. an advisor only?.....|_|_|
- b. a mentor only?|_|_|
- c. both an advisor and a mentor?|_|_|
- d. neither an advisor nor a mentor?|_|_|

B5. In the last 5 years, how many of these [FILL: B1 NUMBER] doctoral students earned PhD’s or MD/PhD’s?

- Do not include current students who have not yet completed their degrees.
- Do not include students who left the program without completing their degrees.

|_|_| NUMBER OF DOCTORAL STUDENTS

B6. In the last 5 years, not including these [FILL: B1 NUMBER] students, about how many doctoral students did you work with informally?

- By “informally,” we mean that you did not have official responsibilities in overseeing students’ work, but you gave them advice, support, or guidance.

C. STUDENT OUTCOMES

The next questions are about your doctoral students.

C1. You indicated that in the last 5 years, [FILL: B5 NUMBER] students received their doctorates. How many of these students completed their degrees in...

- a. less than 4 years?.....|__|
- b. in 4 years?.....|__|
- c. in 5 years?.....|__|
- d. in 6 years?.....|__|
- e. in 7-9 years?.....|__|
- f. in 10 or more years?.....|__|

C2. Prior to completing the doctoral program, how many of these [FILL: B5 NUMBER] students were listed as an author on at least one publication (article in peer-reviewed journal, book, book chapter, etc.)?

- Do not count any students with publications that were “in progress”—that is, under review, being revised or edited, or accepted for publication but not yet published.
- Do not count any students with presentations, informal papers (not peer-reviewed), or theses or dissertations, unless they were also published.

D. INSTITUTIONS, DEPARTMENTS, AND PROGRAMS

D1. In your doctoral program, which of the following best describes how doctoral students are paired with advisors?

CHECK ONLY ONE ANSWER

- 1 Students select faculty members to be their advisors
- 2 Faculty members select which students they will work with
- 3 Faculty members and students jointly decide to pair up
- 4 The program or department pairs students with faculty members based on some criteria (e.g., availability, funds, interests, etc.)
- 5 Other (Please specify)

D2. Institutions vary in who takes primary responsibility for different activities.

For each activity below, please indicate whether it is the institution's, the faculty member's, or some other entity's primary responsibility.

Example: If the institution mandates that all doctoral students must complete a training in how to conduct research responsibly, but it is up to each faculty member to conduct this training, you would mark, "Primarily Institution's Responsibility." If, on the other hand, it is each faculty member's decision to train their own students in this skill, you would mark "Primarily Faculty Member's Responsibility."

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

	Training Ph.D.s: Faculty Views on their Role and their Institution's Role to Promote the Development of Responsible Researchers
What is the purpose of this study?	The Office of Research Integrity (ORI) is interested in learning more about faculty and their institution's roles in the successful development of Ph.D. and M.D./Ph.D. students. Doctoral students' perceptions about their graduate experiences have been reported, and similar information is needed from the faculty perspective.
Who is conducting the study?	ORI has contracted with Mathematica Policy Research, Inc. (MPR), a nationally recognized policy research organization, to conduct this study. For more than 35 years, Mathematica has provided research-based information to improve policy and programs in education, health, and employment. For more information about Mathematica, visit our website at www.mathematica-mpr.com .
Who is eligible to participate in this study?	All National Institutes of Health (NIH) 2005 and 2006 grant recipients who have had primary responsibility for overseeing a Ph.D. or M.D./Ph.D. student in the last five years.
How was I selected?	Lists of 2005-2006 NIH grant recipients were used to select the sample. A total of 10,000 grant recipients were randomly selected from these lists.
What will I be asked to do?	You will be asked to complete a self-administered, web-based questionnaire. The questionnaire will cover topics related to your doctoral student responsibilities and activities. There will also be questions about the participation of your department and academic institution in the research experiences of doctoral students.
How long will it take?	The self-administered web-based questionnaire will take about 20 minutes to complete.
What are the risks associated with participation?	There are no risks associated with participation in this research. You will be assigned a unique user ID and password. Rigorous MPR confidentiality and security information technology guidelines will be in place to protect the security of the information transmitted over the web. Data will be stored on a secure web server within company firewalls.
What are the benefits to participating?	ORI will have information about faculty, departmental, and institutional roles in the research training of Ph.D. and M.D./Ph.D. students. The knowledge gained from a better understanding of current practices and policies will inform a discussion of best practices, such as guidelines for faculty activities and responsibilities in the development of responsible researchers. Faculty members, and the interested public, will also learn more about these practices and policies when the results are published in peer-reviewed journals.
Will the information be confidential?	All data will be kept strictly confidential. Individual names will not be reported, all results will be presented in aggregate form.
What if I have questions?	Please contact Janice Ballou at Mathematica Policy Research, Inc. toll-free at 1-xxx-xxx-xxxx or via email at ORI-faculty@mathematica-mpr.com .
