2010 $50 Gold Buffalo Tribute Proof

One of the most popular coins ever produced by the U.S. Mint, the $50 Gold Buffalo is the first 2010 $50 gold coin issued by the U.S. Government – and the most gold coin ever issued by anyone! Given the current rush to buy gold, this coin is being shipped to regular collectors – with the price of the last release through the roof – as high as $2,400! Now you can have your own.

Mint as a 24-KT Proof Gold Coin. Proof 6 to include a 10% discount on the United States Bullion based on the 2010 Bullion market on the reverse. The reverse shows the classic Buffalo Head design in striking relief. The best lower price ever for an $50 gold proof, but during our special release, the 24 carat pure gold had never been there for 7 years for only $19.95.

With gold skyrocketing past $1000 an ounce, prices are sure to plummet for some days. Each new 2010 $50 gold bullion release goes away with an individually numbered certificate of authenticity.

There's a silver side to the great gold of this coin as you make your purchase. Each purchase makes a donation to the American Red Cross. For more information, for you must have a valid identification and return request. Call now.
