Code section 6655 has been amended by section 13225 of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993. Under section 6655, a corporation (including an S corporation), a tax-exempt organization subject to the unrelated business income tax, and a private foundation must annually elect the use of an annualization method in section 6655(e)(2)(C)(i) or (ii) for purposes of figuring the corporation's estimated tax payments under the annualized income installment method.

The Form 8842 provides IRS with a method of identifying those organizations that are electing to use one of the two optional methods under the annualized income installment method.
