

Women Participants Wanted for Research Study

NORC, a national organization for research at the University of Chicago is looking for women aged 18 or older to answer questions about their health.

The interview will take place at a place and time you prefer and take no longer than 2 hours and participants will receive $75.

FOR MORE INFORMATION,

Please call xxx at:

If you receive voicemail, please leave your name and phone number.