The following constitutes the full understanding and agreement between the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB) and _____ (a person from a User Company that deals with the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau) with regard to the Pay.gov system. This system is subject to the following conditions.
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. User Account(s) and Access: Upon receipt of an approved agreement, the system administrator will provide a unique username to the user via email. The system administrator will also contact the user via telephone with a password that the user will be required to reset upon their first access of the system. With respect to the username, the following conditions apply: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. The user is solely responsible for the security and proper use of their username and password and must take all necessary steps to ensure the password is kept confidential and secure, is used properly, and is not disclosed to anyone. b. The user and the stated User Company agree to indemnify and hold harmless and hereby waive all potential claims for damages against the Department of Treasury and its constituent units arising from any conduct by the user, the stated User Company, and its employees or agents that results in or constitutes a breach of password security or unauthorized use of the Pay.gov system. c. The user and the User Company agree to request revocation of the Pay.gov user ID when the user no longer has Signature Authority or Power of Attorney for the User Company. d. If the user or system administrator identifies that the password security has potentially been breached, they will inform each other and the system administrator will reset the password for that account and provide the new password to the user via telephone before the next tax payment due date. e. The user agrees they will use the system solely for submitting information for the stated User Company. f. Regardless of whether the user and the User Company have actual control over the acts of third parties, they agree that they have the last clear chance to avoid breach of password security for the username and agree to indemnify and hold TTB harmless for any such breach. 2. Network Connection(s): The user agrees that they will be responsible for providing, maintaining, and supporting a connection to the Pay.gov system via the Internet. The system administrator will be responsible for providing, maintaining, and supporting the Pay.gov system and its connection to the Internet. 3. System Monitoring: The user and the User Company acknowledge that the Pay.gov system is a government computer system and consent to monitoring of the system for security, system maintenance, tax administration, law enforcement, and any other purpose authorized by law. 4. System Outage: In the event that the user cannot access the Pay.gov System, they will immediately notify the system administrator to report the problem. The user and the User Company also acknowledge they are still expected to submit payments when due even if the Pay.gov system is not available. 5. Electronic Payment of Taxes Due: The user and the User Company consent to the use of Automated Electronic Payments from the bank account(s) specified in the Pay.gov system for the amount(s) calculated by Pay.gov from the data entered. 6. Confidentiality of Returns and Return Information: Section 6103, Title 26, United States Code prohibits the disclosure of tax return(s) or return information (as defined in Section 6103) except in specifically proscribed circumstances and provides civil and criminal penalties for the unlawful disclosure of such information. However, Section 6103(c) permits the disclosure of return information to a designee of the taxpayer upon the taxpayer's request. The user and the User Company consent that this Agreement constitutes a request for disclosure to the User Company's designee(s) under Section 6103(c). Further, the User Company agrees that accessing the Pay.gov system by means of the assigned username constitutes an affirmative waiver of all claims under Section 6103, Title 26, United States Code with respect to any return information transmitted during the online access session.

7. Penalties and Interest: TTB agrees to waive penalties assessed due to failure to timely pay taxes due, where a system failure or downtime caused the delay in submission and the delay or failure to pay is not caused by error or negligence of the User Company. This limited waiver applies only to penalties for failure to pay (Section 6651(a)(2), Title 26, United States Code), or failure to deposit (Section 6656, Title 26, United States Code), when it has been reasonably demonstrated by the User Company, to the satisfaction of TTB, that the failure to pay was caused by the downtime or failure of the Pay.gov system and not by actions of the User Company. Notwithstanding the above, the User Company understands and acknowledges that TTB lacks any legal authority to waive or compromise interest due on late or insufficient tax payments.
8. Termination of Agreement: TTB, the user, and the User Company agree that this User Agreement applies only to the Pay.gov system. Periodic enhancements, improvements, and changes to the Pay.gov system will not impact this agreement. Further, the user, the User Company, and TTB agree that this agreement may be terminated at any time for any reason upon written notice.
9. Separation of Conditions: If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever, the remaining provisions shall remain valid and unimpaired, and shall continue in full force and effect.
10. Agreement: This agreement supersedes any and all other agreements, whether oral or written, between TTB, the user, and the User Company with respect to the matters stated herein, and this agreement contains all of the covenants and agreements between the parties with respect thereto. This agreement may be amended or modified only in writing and shall be effective only after affixation of the signatures of both parties' representatives.
