E-VERIFY
NOTICE TO EMPLOYEE OF TENTATIVE NONCONFIRMATION

Employee Name: Jefferson, Thomas
Employee ID: 216-47-4401
Date of Tentative Nonconfirmation: 03/17/2008
Agency Providing Tentative Nonconfirmation: Social Security Administration

Your employer is participating in a pilot project with the Social Security Administration (SSA) and the Department of Homeland Security to verify employment eligibility information you provided when you completed the Form I-9. When your information was compared electronically to government records, SSA could not confirm that you are eligible to work in the United States. This tentative nonconfirmation does not mean that you are not work authorized, or that the information you provided is incorrect. There are many reasons why a work authorized employee could be the subject of a tentative nonconfirmation. The tentative nonconfirmation means, however, that you must contact the SSA to resolve the situation if you wish to continue your employment.

You have a voluntary choice. You may Contest the tentative nonconfirmation, or you may choose to Not Contest the tentative nonconfirmation.

If you Contest this tentative nonconfirmation, you must contact the SSA. By contesting, your employer will refer your case through E-Verify, and provide you with a referral notice that will tell you how to contact the SSA. You will be provided 8 Federal government work days from the date of that referral notice to resolve your situation with SSA. At the SSA office, you may be asked to provide additional information or documents that will permit the SSA to notify your employer that you are work authorized. During the 8 Federal government work days you have, your employer may not terminate your employment or take adverse action against you based upon your employment eligibility status or because you have chosen to contest the tentative nonconfirmation.

If you do Not Contest the tentative nonconfirmation, you are making a choice voluntarily to give up your opportunity to correct the tentative nonconfirmation. If you do not contest the tentative nonconfirmation, it automatically becomes a final nonconfirmation. That means that your employer may terminate you immediately as an unauthorized employee. If you do not contest the tentative nonconfirmation, a legal presumption is created that your employer is in violation of the law if it continues your employment.

If you have questions or concerns about immigration-related unfair employment practices, you may call the Office of Special Counsel for Immigration-Related Unfair Employment Practices at 1-800-255-7688 or 1-800-237-2515 (TDD) for the hearing impaired.

Choose to (check one):

- Contest the tentative nonconfirmation. I understand that I must contact the Social Security Administration within 8 Federal Government work days from the date shown on the referral notice which is to be provided by my employer.
- Not Contest the tentative nonconfirmation. I choose voluntarily to give up my opportunity to correct the tentative nonconfirmation. I understand that my voluntary choice not to contest the tentative nonconfirmation authorizes my employer to terminate my employment immediately.

PILOTO BASICO DE VERIFICACION DE EMPLEO
NOTIFICACION A TRABAJADOR DE NO CONFIRMACION TENTATIVA

Nombre del Trabajador) Jefferson, Thomas

Número de Seguro Social: 216-47-4401

Fecha de No Confirmación Tentativa: 03/17/2008

Agencia que Emite la No Confirmación Tentativa: la Administración del Seguro Social su empleador esta participando en un proyecto piloto con la Administración del Seguro Social (en ingles Social Security Administration, SSA) y el Departamento de la Seguridad Interna Nacional (en ingles, Department of Homeland Security) para verificar la información de elegibilidad de empleo que usted entrego cuando completo el Formulario 1-9. Cuando su información fue comparada electrónicamente con archivos del gobierno, la SSA y/o el Departamento de la Seguridad Interna Nacional, no pudieron confirmar que usted es elegible para trabajar en los Estados Unidos. Esta No Confirmación Tentativa no significa que usted no este autorizado a trabajar ni que la información que entrego sea incorrecta. Hay muchas razones por las que un trabajador autorizado a trabajar puede ser objeto de una No Confirmación Tentativa. Sin embargo, la No Confirmación Tentativa significa que usted tiene que contactar al gobierno para resolver su situación si desea continuar trabajando.

usted tiene dos opciones a su disposición: Puede Disputar la No Confirmación Tentativa o puede elegir No Disputar la No Confirmación Tentativa.

Si elige Disputar la No Confirmación Tentativa, tiene que contactar a la SSA o el Departamento de la Seguridad Interna Nacional en ocho días laborables del Gobierno Federal a partir de la fecha indicada mas arriba para resolver su situación entregando información adicional o documentos que permitirán al gobierno notificar a su empleador que usted esta autorizado a trabajar. Durante ese periodo de tiempo su empleador no podrá despedirlo ni emprender acciones contra usted basándose en su estado de elegibilidad laboral o porque usted haya elegido Disputar la No Confirmación Tentativa. Si usted disputa la No Confirmación Tentativa, su empleador le entregara una hoja informativa que le dirá lo que necesita saber sobre que agencia del gobierno contactar (SSI o Departamento de la Seguridad Interna Nacional) Y como hacerlo.

Si elige No Disputar esta No Confirmación Tentativa, equivale a renunciar voluntariamente a la posibilidad de rectificar su No Confirmación Tentativa. Si no disputa la No Confirmación Tentativa, automáticamente se convierte en una No Confirmación Final. Esto quiere decir que su empleador puede despedirlo inmediatamente como trabajador no autorizado. Si no disputa la No Confirmación Tentativa, la presunción legal será que su empleador esta violando la ley si usted continua trabajando para él.

Si tiene preguntas o preocupaciones sobre practicas laborales injustas relacionadas con inmigración, usted puede llamar gratuitamente a la Oficina del Abogado Especial de Practicas Laborales Injustas Relacionadas con Inmigración al numero 1-800-255-7688 o al numero especial para personas con problema de audición 1-800-237-2515.

Elija (marque una):

Disputar la No Confirmación Tentativa. Entiendo que tengo que contactar al gobierno en 8 días laborales del Gobierno Federal, y que mi empleador tiene que entregarme información que me explique como hacer esto.

No Disputar la No Confirmación Tentativa. Elijo voluntariamente renunciar a mi oportunidad de corregir la No Confirmación Tentativa. Entiendo que mi elección voluntaria de no disputar la No Confirmación Tentativa autoriza a mi empleador a despedirme inmediatamente.

E-VERIFY
NOTICE TO EMPLOYEE OF TENTATIVE NONCONFIRMATION

Employee Name: Lindberg, Rodney

Employee's A Number: 001-01-2904

Employee's I-94 Number: 999999921

Date of Tentative Nonconfirmation: 03/17/2008

Agency Providing Tentative Nonconfirmation: Department of Homeland Security

Your employer is participating in E-Verify, a pilot program with the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the Social Security Administration to verify your name, date of birth, Social Security number, and citizenship or immigration status to ensure that you are authorized to work in the United States. E-Verify also allows your employer to verify that the photograph appearing in the DHS-issued employment authorization document or lawful permanent resident card you presented when completing the DHS Form I-9 matches the photograph appearing in DHS records.

Your employer has determined that the photograph that appears on your document does not match the official DHS photograph, which DHS transmitted over the internet to your employer's computer. This initial determination by your employer does not mean that you are not work authorized or that the document you presented to complete the Form I-9 is fraudulent. However, it does mean that if you choose not to contest this decision, your employer must terminate your employment. If you choose to contest the decision, DHS will review its records and make a final determination concerning whether or not you are authorized to work in the United States.

You have two options for resolving your tentative nonconfirmation.

You may Contest your employer's initial decision regarding the validity of your document, or you may choose to Not Contest the decision.

If you Contest the initial decision made by your employer regarding the validity of your documentation, your employer will refer your case and its accompanying documentation to DHS. DHS will provide you with a referral notice that will tell you how to contact the DHS. You may provide additional information or documents to DHS that will assist it in its determination of your employment eligibility. Your employer may not terminate your employment or take adverse action against you because you have chosen to contest its initial decision or because of your employment eligibility status unless DHS concludes that you are not authorized to work or that the document you presented to complete the Form I-9 is fraudulent.

If you do Not Contest the decision, you are making a choice voluntarily to give up your opportunity to contest your employer's decision, and your employer must terminate you immediately as an individual who is not authorized to work in the United States.

Please see the attachment to this notice for more information about your rights regarding your employer's use of E-Verify. If you have questions or concerns about the misuse of E-Verify or if you are being terminated or subject to other adverse action based upon your decision to contest the decision regarding your documentation, you may call for assistance the Office of Special Counsel for Immigration-Related Unfair Employment Practices, Civil Rights Division, US Department of Justice toll free at 1-800-255-7688 or 1-800-237-2515 (TDD for the hearing impaired).

PILOTO BÁSICO DE VERIFICACIÓN DE EMPLEO AVISO AL EMPLEADO DE NO CONFIRMACIÓN PROVISIONAL

Nombre del empleado: Lindberg, Rodney

Número de Seguro Social: 001-01-2904

Número A del empleado: 999999921

Número I-94 del empleado:

Fecha de no confirmación provisional: 03/17/2008

su empleador está participando en el Piloto Básico, un programa piloto con el Departamento de Seguridad del Territorio Nacional (Department of Homeland Security - DHS) y la Administración del Seguro Social para verificar su nombre, fecha de nacimiento, número de Seguro Social y clasificación de ciudadanía o inmigración a fin de asegurar que usted esté autorizado para trabajar en los Estados Unidos. El Piloto Básico le permite a su empleador verificar que la fotografía que aparece en el documento de autorización de empleo emitido por el DHS o la tarjeta de residente permanente lícito que usted presentó cuando completó el Formulario I-9 del DHS corresponde a la fotografía que obra en los archivos del DHS.

su empleador ha determinado que la fotografía que aparece en su documento no corresponde a la fotografía oficial del DHS, la cual el DHS transmitió por Internet a la computadora de su empleador. La determinación inicial de su empleador no quiere decir que usted no está autorizado para trabajar o que el documento que presentó para completar el Formulario I-9 es fraudulento. Sin embargo, sí significa que si usted opta por no impugnar esta decisión, su empleador debe dar por terminado su empleo. Si opta por impugnar la decisión, el DHS eliminará sus registros y tomará una determinación definitiva sobre si usted está autorizado o no para trabajar en los Estados Unidos.

usted puede impugnar la decisión inicial de su empleador sobre la validez de su documento o puede optar por no impugnar la decisión.

usted impugna la decisión inicial tomada por su empleador respecto a la validez de su documentación, su empleador remitirá su caso y su documentación acompañante al DHS, y le suministrará a usted un aviso de remisión que le dirá cómo comunicarse con el DHS. Usted puede suministrar información o documentos adicionales al DHS para ayudarlo en su determinación de su admisibilidad para el empleo. Su empleador no podrá dar por terminado su empleo ni tomar ninguna acción adversa contra usted por el hecho de que usted ha dado por impugnar la decisión inicial de éste o debido a su clasificación de admisibilidad para el empleo a menos que el DHS concluya que usted no está autorizado para trabajar o que el documento que usted presentó para completar el Formulario I-9 es fraudulento.

usted no impugna la decisión, está tomando una decisión voluntaria de renunciar a la oportunidad de impugnar la decisión de su empleador, y su empleador debe darlo por terminado inmediatamente por ser una persona que no está autorizada para trabajar en los Estados Unidos.

usted puede consultar el anexo de este aviso para mayor información sobre sus derechos respecto al uso del Piloto Básico por parte de su empleador. Si tiene preguntas o preocupaciones acerca del uso indebido del Piloto Básico, incluso si se le ha dado por terminado o está sujeto a otra acción adversa con base en su decisión de impugnar la decisión respecto a su documentación, puede llamar para asistencia a la Oficina del Asesor Legal para Prácticas de Empleo Injustas Relacionadas con la Inmigración, División de Derechos Civiles

Your employer is participating in E-Verify, a pilot program with the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the Social Security Administration to verify your name, date of birth, Social Security number, and citizenship or immigration status to ensure that you are authorized to work in the United States. E-Verify also allows your employer to verify that the photograph appearing in the DHS-issued employment authorization document or lawful permanent resident card you presented when completing the DHS Form I-9 matches the official photograph in DHS's records.

Your employer was unable to determine whether the photograph on your document matches the photograph in DHS's records and will therefore refer your documentation to the Department of Homeland Security to determine whether it is valid. Your employer's inability to determine whether the photograph on your document matches the photograph in DHS's records does not mean that you are not authorized to work or that the document you presented to complete the Form I-9 is fraudulent. However, the Department of Homeland Security will now determine whether your document is valid. It is important for you to call within 3 days of receipt of this notice a Department of Homeland Security Immigration Status Verifier at 1-888-464-4218 for assistance in resolving your case.

At any time your employer may not terminate your employment or take adverse action against you based upon your employment eligibility status. However, if the Department of Homeland Security determines that you are not authorized to work or that the document you presented is fraudulent your employer must terminate your employment to comply with federal law. Please refer to the attachment to this notice for more information regarding your employer's use of E-Verify. If you have questions or concerns about the misuse of E-Verify, you may also call for assistance at the Office of Special Counsel for Immigration-Related Unfair Employment Practices, Civil Rights Division, US Department of Justice toll free at 1-800-255-7688 or 1-800-237-2515 (for the hearing impaired).
