_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

III-13. Have there been any changes in the end uses of rebar since 2002?

- No Yes—Please describe.

III-14. Do you anticipate any changes in terms of the end uses of rebar in the future?

- No Yes--Please describe and identify the time period. Provide any underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation that address this issue.

III-15. (a) Can other products be substituted for rebar?

- No Yes--Please list these substitute products in order of importance.

(1) _____ (2) _____ (3) _____

(b) For each possible substitute product, please give examples of applications and end uses for which they are substitutes.

PART III.--PRICING AND MARKET FACTORS--Continued

III-15. (c) Have changes in the prices of these products affected the price for rebar?

- No Yes--To what degree do changes in their prices affect the price for rebar? Does this effect have a time lag? If so, how long is the time lag for each substitute product? Does this vary by type of rebar or final end use?

III-16. Have there been any changes in the number or types of products that can be substituted for rebar since 2002?

- No Yes—Please explain.

III-17. Do you anticipate any changes in terms of the substitutability of other products for rebar in the future?

- No Yes—Please describe. Provide any underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation that address this issue.

III-18. To what extent have changes in the prices of raw materials affected your firm's selling prices for rebar since 2002? Also discuss any anticipated changes in your raw material costs in the future, identifying the time period(s) involved and the factor(s) that you believe would be responsible for such changes. Provide any underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation that address this issue.

PART III.--PRICING AND MARKET FACTORS--Continued

III-19. Have any changes occurred in any other factors affecting supply (e.g., changes in availability or prices of energy or labor; transportation conditions; production capacity and/or methods of production; technology; export markets; or alternative production opportunities) that affected the availability of U.S.-produced rebar in the U.S. market since 2002?

- No Yes--Please note the time period(s) of any such changes, the factors(s) involved, and the impact such changes had on your shipment volumes and prices.

III-20. (a) Do you anticipate any changes in terms of the availability of rebar imported from Turkey in the U.S. market in the future?

- Increase No change Decrease

(b) If you anticipate changes in supply, please identify the changes, including the time period and the impact of such changes on shipment volumes and prices. Provide any underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation that address this issue.

III-21. Has the availability of NONSUBJECT imported rebar changed since 2002?

- No Yes--Please explain.

III-22. Describe how easily your firm can shift its sales of rebar between the U.S. market and alternative country markets. In your discussion, please describe any contracts, other sales arrangements, or other constraints that would prevent or retard your firm from shifting rebar between the U.S. and alternative country markets within a 12-month period. Provide any underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation that address this issue.

III-23. Have there been any significant changes in the product range, product mix, or marketing (including sales over the internet) of rebar since 2002?

- No Yes--Please describe and quantify if possible.
