PART III.— MARKET CHARACTERISTICS AND PURCHASING PRACTICES --Continued

III-20. What characteristics does your firm consider when determining the quality of certain steel grating?

III-21. Choice of product not based on price.--If you purchased certain steel grating from one source although a comparable product was available from another source at a lower price, please explain your reasons for doing so (please specify by country, including the United States and both subject and nonsubject foreign countries). Possibilities might include transaction characteristics such as length of time to fill orders, minimum order size, reliability of supply, etc.

III-22. Frequency of decisions based on price.--How often does your firm purchase the certain steel grating that is offered at the lowest price?

- Always Usually Sometimes Rarely Never

III-23. Please list the names of any firms you considered price leaders in the certain steel grating market since 2007. A price leader is defined as (1) one or more firms that initiate a price change, either upward or downward, that is followed by other firms, or (2) one or more firms that have a significant impact on prices. A price leader does not necessarily have to be the lowest priced supplier.

III-24. Please describe how the above firm(s) exhibited price leadership.

IV-3. Factors other than price.--Are differences other than price (i.e., quality, availability, transportation network, product range, technical support, etc.) between certain steel grating produced in the United States and in other countries a significant factor in your firm's purchases of the products? Please indicate below, using "A" to indicate that such differences are always significant, "F" to indicate that such differences are frequently significant, "S" to indicate that such differences are sometimes significant, "N" to indicate that such differences are never significant, and "0" to indicate no familiarity with products from a specified country-pair.¹

| Country-pair | China | Other countries |
|---|-------|-----------------|
| United States | | |
| China | | |
| ¹ For any country-pair for which factors other than price always or frequently are a significant factor in your firm's purchases of certain steel grating, identify the country-pair and report the advantages or disadvantages imparted by such factors: <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> | | |

IV-4. Do you or your customers ever specifically order certain steel grating from one country in particular over other possible sources of supply?

- No Yes--Please identify all relevant countries (including the United States and both subject and nonsubject foreign countries) from which you or your customers prefer to order, and indicate why certain steel grating from these countries is preferred over product from other countries (please note the specific product in your response).

IV-5. Are certain grades/types/sizes of certain steel grating available from only a single source (domestic or foreign, including both subject and nonsubject countries)?

No Yes--Please identify the source and the grade/type/size.

IV-6. If you purchased certain steel grating from one source although a comparable product was available from another source at a lower price, please explain your reasons for doing so (please specify by country, including the United States and both subject and nonsubject foreign countries). Possibilities might include transaction characteristics such as length of time to fill orders, minimum order size, reliability of supply, etc.

IV-7. For the factors listed below, please rate how certain steel grating produced in each country you identified in your response to the first question in Part IV compares with certain steel grating produced in each of the other countries you identified (including the United States and both China and other countries). Please type an “X” for each quality in each product comparison indicating whether the product from the first source is superior, comparable, or inferior compared with the product from the second source.

| Quality | Product from United States compared to product from China | | | Product from compared to product from | | | Product from compared to product from | | |
