To receive unemployment benefits, you must be unemployed, ready to work, and willing to work on all days for which you claim benefits. In your case, this means that you must be actively seeking work to be eligible for unemployment benefits. This includes both railroad and nonrailroad work. Your efforts to find work should include the local newspaper want-ads, employers and businesses listed in the telephone yellow pages who need the skills you have, union halls and employment services.

Please follow the instructions for the item(s) checked below:

- Read Booklet UB-12 for guidance and tips on how to conduct a successful job search.
- Report in person to the State Employment Service in _____ on or before _____ to apply for work. Present that office with the Form ES-21 you have been given. Failure to report as instructed can cause you to lose unemployment benefits for 30 days.
- Record your work-seeking efforts on page two of this form and mail the completed form to this office by _____.
- Record the work-seeking efforts you made in the last 60 days on page two of this form and mail the completed form to this office within 15 days of the date of this letter.
- Record the work-seeking efforts you made in the last 60 days on page two of this form and present the completed form to the Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) representative at your next interview.
- Apply for work with the following employers:

If you have been instructed to complete and return the second page of this form, failure to do so may result in denial of benefits. Contact the RRB office shown above if you need more information or if you become employed.
