Representative Payee Report

Why You Received This Form

We must regularly review how representative payees used the benefits they received on behalf of the Social Security and/or Supplemental Security Income (SSI) beneficiaries. We do this to ensure the benefits are used properly.

When you were appointed representative payee, you were informed of the duties and responsibilities of a representative payee, including keeping records and reporting on the use of benefits. You should use these records to answer the questions on the enclosed reporting form. You must complete this form if you received any Social Security and/or SSI payments during the 12-month report period shown on the form. You must also complete the form if you wish to continue to receive payments for another person. It is called Representative Payee Report, SSA-623-OCR-SM.

You should keep these records (e.g., bank statements and canceled checks, receipts for rent, etc.) for two years from the time you complete the form. Do not submit any records with the completed form. If we have any questions or require proof, we will contact you.

Your Responsibilities As Representative Payee

We appreciate your services as representative payee. As payee, you must use the Social Security and/or SSI benefits you receive for the care and well being of the beneficiary. You need to know the beneficiary's needs so that you can use the money properly.

In addition to reporting on the use of benefits, you must report any changes which may affect the beneficiary's eligibility for benefits, or the payment amount. You should report the changes as soon as possible by calling SSA at 1-800-772-1213, or by calling or writing your local SSA office. For example, you must tell us if the beneficiary:

- dies,
- moves (especially if he/she enters or leaves a hospital or other institution),
- marries,
- starts or stops working,
- is imprisoned,
- is adopted,
- no longer needs a payee, or
- you are no longer responsible for the beneficiary.

If you are payee for a child receiving SSI benefits, we may ask you for proof that the child is receiving medical treatment for his/her disabling condition. We may ask for this information at the time we review the child's case. If we do ask for this information, you must give it to us.

If you are no longer payee for the beneficiary, you must return any Social Security funds you have saved to SSA.

The Privacy Act And Paperwork Reduction Act Statements

We are required by sections 205(j) and 1631(a) of the Social Security Act to ask you to complete this report. The information you provide enables SSA to account for the beneficiary's payments, and ensures that beneficiary needs are being met. If you do not complete and return this report, we may not be able to continue sending the beneficiary's payments to you.

The law sometimes requires us to give out the facts on this form without your consent. The information must be released to another person or government agency if Federal law requires the information for research and audits in order to administer or improve our representative payee program.

We may also use the information you give us when we match records by computer. Matching programs compare our records with those of other Federal, State, or local government agencies. Many agencies may use matching programs to find or prove that a person qualifies for benefits paid by the Federal government. The law allows us to do this even if you do not agree to it. Explanations about these and other reasons why information you provide us may be used or given out are available in Social Security offices. If you want to learn more about this, contact any Social Security office.

This information collection meets the requirements of 44 U.S.C. §3507, as amended by section 2 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. You do not need to answer these questions unless we display a valid Office of Management and Budget control number. We estimate that it will take about 15 minutes to read the instructions, gather the necessary facts, and answer the questions. You may send comments on our time estimate above to: SSA, 1338 Annex Building, Baltimore, MD 21235. Send only comments relating to our time estimate to this address, not the completed form.
