Page 2, What Is the Purpose of This Form?	What Is the Purpose of This Form? For an alien who is otherwise not permitted to enter the United States to apply for permission to temporarily enter the United States.	What Is the Purpose of This Form? This form allows inadmissible nonimmigrant aliens to apply for advance permission to temporarily enter the United States. Grounds of inadmissibility can be found in the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) section 212(a). The statutory and regulatory basis for this form can be found in INA section 212(d)(3)(A) (ii) and Title 8 Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), part 212.4(b); and INA sections 212(d) (13) and (14); 8 CFR 212.16 and 17, and 8 CFR 214.11 and 214.14 for T and U visa applicants.
		Who Should File This Form? The form should be filed, if you are an inadmissible alien in one of the following categories:

		A. Inadmissible nonimmigrant already in possession of appropriate documents
		B.Applicant for T nonimmigrant status; or C.Applicant for U nonimmigrant status.
		Note: If you are seeking admission under the Visa Waiver Program (VWP) under INA section 217, you should NOT file this form. Aliens from VWP countries who are inadmissible must apply for a nonimmigrant visa at a U.S. Embassy or consulate for authorization to travel. You should contact the appropriate U.S. Embassy or consulate if you have any questions regarding your admissibility under VWP.
		Note: Do not file this form, if you are a T visa applicant who is inadmissible under INA section 212(a)(4)(Public charge) because you are exempt from this ground of inadmissibility.
		Where to File

	non-immigrant will enter the United States.	1. The application is filed with U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) in advance of the date of intended travel to the United States. Filing of this application is generally done in person at a CBP designated port of entry or a CBP designated preclearance office.

There are exceptions to in person filing. It is recommended that you contact the CBP preclearance office or the CBP port of entry where you intend to be processed before submitting your application. To find a CBP designated port of entry or a CBP designated preclearance office and to obtain information on required documentation and processing procedures, please visit the CBP Website at www.cbp.gov (go to the search box and type "Form I-192," or "I-192" or "192" or "waiver").

- 2. You will be required to submit fingerprints. If you are filing in person, you will be fingerprinted when you submit your application. If you apply where there is an exception to in-person filing requirement, you will be notified regarding arrangements for your fingerprinting. Generally, there is no additional charge.
- 3. Special Instructions for Citizens of Palau, the Federated States of Micronesia, or the Marshall Islands: You may contact the nearest consulate of the U.S. Department of State to receive instructions on where and how to submit this form. You may also receive filing

If 2 below. involuntary membership or affiliation is alleged, there shall also be attached to the A. Inadmissible on Foreign Policy or National application a written statement to support said Security Grounds under INA Section 212(a)(3) allegation. If you are inadmissible under any provision of

If the application is made because the applicant may be inadmissible due to disease, mental or physical defect, or disability of any kind, the application shall describe the disease, defect or disability.

If the purpose of seeking admission to the United States is for treatment, there shall be attached to the application statements in writing to establish:

- 1. That satisfactory treatment cannot be obtained outside the United States;
- 2. That arrangements have been completed for treatment, and where and from treatment will be received;
- 3. What financial arrangements for payment of expenses incurred in connection with the treatment have been made; and
- 4. That a bond will be available if required by the Secretary of Homeland Security.

If the application is made because the applicant may be inadmissible due to conviction of crime, the designation of the crime, date and place of its commission and of conviction thereof, and sentence or judgment of the court shall be stated in the application. In such case the application INA section 212(a)(3)(A)(i)(II), (B), (E)(iii) or (F), please submit a written statement with your application, signed under penalty of perjury under U.S. law. The written statement should explain in detail why you are inadmissible and why you believe you should be admitted.

Note: Do not file this application if you are inadmissible under INA section 212(a)(3)(A)(i) (I), (A)(ii), (A)(iii), (C), (E)(i) or (E)(ii). INA section 212(d)(3)(A) does not permit the nonimmigrant admission of an alien inadmissible on one of these grounds.

Note: Do not file this application if you are inadmissible under INA section 212(a)(3)(D) for being a member of a Communist or other totalitarian party, since this inadmissibility ground applies to immigrants, but not nonimmigrants.

B. Inadmissible Because of Health-Related Grounds of Inadmissibility under INA Section 212(a)(1)

If you file this application because you are inadmissible because of health-related grounds of inadmissibility, you should describe the healthshould be supplemented by an official record of related grounds in detail. conviction and any other documents relating to commutation of sentence, parole, probation or pardon.

If you are seeking admission to the United States for the treatment of a medical condition, you have to attach a written statement establishing:

- 1. That satisfactory treatment cannot be obtained outside the United States:
- 2. That arrangements for treatment have been made, including where and from whom or what institution treatment will be received;
- 3. What financial arrangements for payment of expenses (incurred in connection with the treatment) have been made; and
- 4. That a bond will be available, if required by the Secretary of Homeland Security.

C. Inadmissible Because of Criminal Conviction(s) and Related Grounds under INA Section 212(a)(2)

If the application is made because you have been convicted of one (1) or more crimes, anywhere in the world, your application should include a statement, signed by you under penalty of perjury under U.S. law, specifying (list each crime separately):

- Name of the crime for which you were convicted, and the country in which you were convicted:
- The date and place of the commission of the crime: and
- The date and place of conviction

(including the name of the court); and
The sentence you received or any other judgment from the court related to the crime.

For each conviction, you must submit the official record of each conviction, and all court dispositions, as well as any other documents relating to the commutation of sentence, parole, probation, or pardon. An official letter from the court of jurisdiction stating the reason why an official record is not available may be submitted.

These records must be in English or an English translation must be included. The translator must certify that he /she is competent to translate and that the translation is accurate.

D. For All Other Grounds of Inadmissibility Under INA Section 212(a)

If you are inadmissible under any ground not listed above, you must provide a statement signed by you under penalty of perjury that specifies the applicable ground of inadmissibility, the factual basis for your inadmissibility, and reasons for claiming that you should be granted advance permission to enter the United States.

2. Required Additional Information When Filing Form I-192 with CBP

If you file the application with CBP, you must submit the following additional documentation: A) Submit proof of citizenship and identity, such as passport, citizenship card with photograph, naturalization certificate, or birth certificate. Note that a driver's license is not considered proof of citizenship but may accompany a copy of another document. Copies of these documents are acceptable. B) Completed Form G-325A, Biographic Information, signed and dated by you; C) If you have ever used a name other than your full legal name as provided on the form: You must list any names ever used, including names from previous marriages. Evidence of any legal name changes, such as marriage certificates, divorce decrees, etc. should be included. Copies are acceptable. D) Please ensure that in Item 5, you list a current and complete address, including a postal code. You may use a P.O. Box for mailing purposes. You must also list your complete and current address on all forms and correspondence you send to CBP. E) Each application should contain your official police record or evidence that no record exists, from your country of residence or nationality. This record is valid for 15 months from the date of issuance for submission with your Form I-192.

Canadian filers: You can obtain the above noted information from the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) by submitting your fingerprints on Form C-216C.
