

2008 FEDERAL STUDENT AID AWARENESS SURVEY
(STUDENTS, IN-PERSON ADMINISTRATION)

Note: Will be administered to high school students in person at public locations in Long Beach. Items or text in italics are not read to respondent. For all questions with instructions "probe; mark all that apply," first response will be noted.

Introduction:

Screener

Intro1. HELLO, My name is _____. I'm conducting a survey for the U.S. Department of Education with high school age students and their preparations for attending college. Your responses can help improve programs that make it possible for more people to go to college.

S1. Were you a high school student in the Long Beach Unified Schools in the school year ending in June 2008?

01 Yes, continue
02 No, [Terminate]
99 Refused [Terminate]

(Termination statement) Thank you very much, but we are only interviewing Long Beach high school students. Thank you for your time.

S2. To thank you for your time, we'll provide you with a small gift for your participation.

(PRESURVEY INTRO)

S3. I won't ask for your name, address or other personal information that can identify you. Your participation is by choice and you may decline to participate at all. You don't have to answer any question you don't want to, and you can end the interview at any time. The interview takes approximately 9 minutes and any information you give us will be confidential. If you have any questions about this survey, I will provide a telephone number for you to call to get more information about the study or your rights as a research participant. Would you like for me to give you that number now?
