2005-2006 No Child Left Behind – Blue Ribbon Schools Program Introduction

A Recognition Program for American Schools

At the beginning of the 2001-2002 school year, President Bush made an unequivocal commitment to education:

Because I believe every child can learn, I intend to ensure that every child does learn. My Administration put forward a plan called No Child Left Behind based on four principles: accountability for results; local control and flexibility; expanded parental choice; and effective and successful programs.

The No Child Left Behind legislation expanded on the notion of accountability for results:

States, school districts, and schools must be accountable for ensuring that all students, including disadvantaged students, meet high academic standards. States must develop a system of sanctions and rewards to hold districts and schools accountable for improving academic achievement.

To reward successful schools, the U.S. Department of Education (Department) established the No Child Left Behind - Blue Ribbon Schools Program to honor those elementary and secondary schools in the United States that make significant progress in closing the achievement gap or whose students achieve at very high levels. The program recognizes and presents as models both public and private elementary and secondary schools that meet either of two assessment criteria.

First, it recognizes schools that have at least 40 percent of their students from disadvantaged backgrounds and have dramatically improved student performance to high levels in reading (language arts or English) and mathematics on state assessments or assessments referenced against national norms in at least the highest grade tested. Second, it recognizes schools, regardless of their demographics, that are in the top 10 percent of schools as measured by state tests in both reading (language arts or English) and mathematics or that score in the top 10 percent on assessments referenced against national norms at a particular grade in at least the highest grade tested.

These No Child Left Behind – Blue Ribbon Schools are honored at a Washington, DC ceremony. In addition, the winning applications are posted on the Department website at <http://www.ed.gov/programs/nclbbrs/index.html>. The Secretary may identify educational practices that have been successful in closing the achievement gap.

Nomination Process for Public Schools

For public schools, the Secretary sends a letter of invitation to each Chief State School Officer (CSSO), including the Department of Defense Schools (DoDEA) and the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA), requesting that the CSSO send the Department the names of those schools that meet the criteria for recognition.

The CSSO must insure that the schools meet the criteria for recognition before submitting their names. In a letter to the Department accompanying the list of nominated schools, the CSSO of each state certifies that the schools have all met the minimum requirements established by the CSSO for “dramatically improved” and achieving at “high levels” or for being in the top 10 percent of schools in the state in both reading and mathematics. The letter from the CSSO explains the criteria used by the state to nominate the schools. States must rely on the state accountability system to identify schools for submission to the Secretary. The nomination criteria, including assessments, must pertain equally to all schools nominated from the individual state.

Based on state data, the CSSO certifies that the nominated schools meet one of two criteria:

- 1) The school shows dramatic improvement in test scores to high levels in at least the past three years in reading (language arts or English) and in mathematics for schools that draw at least 40 percent of their students from disadvantaged backgrounds.

“Dramatically improved” is defined by the CSSO of each state based on the state’s definition of adequate yearly progress (AYP). All student groups, including disadvantaged students, must show dramatic improvement as shown by disaggregated data. “High levels” is defined by the CSSO of each state, but at a minimum includes student achievement at least at the 60th percentile of schools in the school’s grade category (elementary, middle, high school) on state assessments in the highest grade tested in the last year tested even if the school makes AYP. A student from a “disadvantaged background” is defined as one who is eligible for free or reduced-priced meals at the school, is limited English proficient, is a migrant student, or is a student receiving services under Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, as amended by the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001.

- 2) Regardless of the its demographics, the school achieves in the top 10 percent of schools in the state in the school’s grade category as measured by state tests of reading (language arts or English) and of mathematics in at least the last grade tested in the last year tested.

At least one-third of the schools nominated by each state must have in the year the school applies 40 percent of the students from disadvantaged backgrounds, whether the schools show dramatic improvement in closing the achievement gap or are high performing (in the top 10 percent). For example, if a state nominates seven schools, at least three must be high poverty schools. States may not submit schools that have been in school improvement status within the last two years.

Once the Secretary receives the nominations from the CSSO, the Department invites the nominated schools to submit applications for possible recognition as a No Child Left Behind – Blue Ribbon School.

The table below demonstrates the type of schools the Secretary wishes the CSSO to identify. In Table 1, the reading scores of the No Child Left Behind – Blue Ribbon School (a hypothetical school) show significant improvement in student achievement scores for all student groups on the state criterion-referenced tests over five years. The Secretary is eager to recognize schools that have shown such success in closing the achievement gap.

In addition to recognizing schools that have shown dramatic improvement, the Secretary wishes to identify those schools that consistently perform in the top 10 percent on state tests in their grade level category. Although schools nominated as high performing do not have to meet the 40 percent disadvantaged requirement, the Secretary is very interested in recognizing high performing schools with a high percentage of disadvantaged students.

Process for Private Schools:

For private schools, the Secretary sends a letter of invitation to the Council for American Private Education (CAPE) requesting that CAPE send the Department the applications of private schools. In submitting the applications, CAPE certifies that the schools meet the criteria for recognition.

A private school may be recognized as a No Child Left Behind – Blue Ribbon School in two ways.

1. A school has at least 40 percent of its students from disadvantaged backgrounds who have dramatically improved their performance in at least the past three years in reading (language arts or English) and mathematics, and are achieving at high levels.

A student from a “disadvantaged background” is defined as one who is eligible for free or reduced-priced meals at the school, is limited English proficient, is a migrant student, or is a student receiving services under Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, as amended by the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001. “Dramatically improved” is defined as an increase of at least one-half standard deviation over at least three years and includes the disadvantaged students as shown by disaggregated data. “High levels” is defined as student achievement in at least the highest grade tested in the last year tested at or above the 60th percentile of schools on assessments referenced against national norms at a particular grade, or at or above the 60th percentile of schools on state tests. If a private school administers state tests and nationally normed tests, the school must be at or above the 60th percentile in both.

2. Regardless of the school's demographics, it may be recognized if its students achieve at the highest levels, that is, if the school is in the top 10 percent of the schools in the nation in reading (language arts or English) and mathematics in the last grade tested, as measured by an assessment referenced against national norms or in the top 10 percent in its state as measured by a state test in at least the last grade tested. If a private school administers state tests and nationally normed tests, the school must be in the top 10 percent in both.

For information on the CAPE nomination process and timeline, private schools should consult the CAPE website at <http://www.capenet.org/brs.html>.

Eligibility

Public and private schools, including schools in the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Bureau of Indian Affairs Schools (BIA), and the Department of Defense Education Agency (DoDEA), with some configuration that includes grades between kindergarten and grade 12 and that meet the eligibility requirements described in this application, are eligible to participate in the program each year. Each state is assigned a number of possible applicants based on the number of K-12 students and the number of schools in the state. The number of possible state applicants ranges from a minimum of 3 schools to a maximum of 35. The BIA and DoDEA may nominate one school each. CAPE may nominate 50 private schools. The potential total for all nominations is 415.

Eligible schools, then, are those nominated by the CSSO or CAPE that meet the eligibility requirements listed on page 9 of this application, meet the assessment criteria in Part VII – Assessment Results, and have completed the entire application.

The Application Process for Nominated Schools

Once the Department receives the nominations from the CSSOs, the Department extends an invitation to the nominated schools to apply. In keeping with the principles of the No Child Left Behind Act, the application focuses primarily on results and scientifically based instructional programs. The completed application will be approximately 10-12 pages, excluding data tables.

Since the Department will usually not conduct site visits of individual schools, it is very important that the CSSO and CAPE adequately screen nominees to ensure that they represent the state or CAPE well, and will be excellent models of best practices for the No Child Left Behind – Blue Ribbon Schools Program. The Secretary reserves the right to initiate site visits to some schools to document their excellent practices as well as to verify the accuracy of data.

Timelines 2005-2006

- September 23: The Secretary sends a letter of invitation to the Chief State School Officers and CAPE requesting the submission of information for nominated schools.
- November 8: Responses are due from the CSSO to the Department.
- November 22: The Department sends letters of invitation with applications to the schools recommended by the CSSO.
- February 10: Completed applications are due to the Department.
- September: The Secretary announces the 2006 No Child Left Behind – Blue Ribbon Schools.
- Fall 2006: Two people from each school, the principal and a teacher, will be invited to a Washington, DC ceremony where the schools will receive a plaque and a flag signifying their status.

Technical Specifications

Please keep the following requirements in mind when completing the application. Failure to comply will result in the school's application not being reviewed.

1. Eligibility. To be eligible, the school must completely fill in the cover sheet and all sections of the application. For example, the school must give a street address even if the mailing address is a post office box number, provide the nine-digit zip code, the school's Web address, and the e-mail address. Incomplete applications, either paper or electronic, will be returned to the school.
2. Paper, Spacing, and Type Size. All responses must be typed on white paper, single-spaced, with one-inch margins on right, left, top, and bottom. Use normal spacing between lines, as in the example in the box below.

Print size must not be reduced smaller than 11-point computer font, the same physical size as the Times New Roman font used in this box. Do not use condensed or compressed type; the font style used should be easily reproducible.

3. Copies. Each school submits one original copy with signatures on the completed application. The signed original application must be stapled in the upper left-hand corner and should be printed on one side. The application should have no additional plastic cover page or backing, nor be placed in a folder, nor have attachments other than assessment data.
4. Electronic Files. At the same time as the paper copy, the school also submits the entire application electronically in one file by sending it as an attachment (including the cover sheet and data tables). The electronic version should not contain signatures. The file must be written in Microsoft Word in PC format. Word and PDF versions of the blank application are on the Department's website. The electronic copy should be sent to nclbbrs@rmcres.com with a copy to the school's state contact. The purpose of this address is solely for receiving applications; questions should not be sent there. _
5. Cover Sheet. Note that the cover sheet requires the signatures of the principal, the district superintendent, and the president/chairperson of the local school board. These signatures certify that each of the three individuals has reviewed the content of the application, including the statement of eligibility, and has determined that it is accurate. (Not all of these signatures may apply to private schools; write N/A in the space where the position or its equivalent is not applicable.)

6. Pagination. Paginate the application and number all pages consecutively including the appendices, beginning with the cover sheet as page 1, the eligibility requirements as page 2.
7. Format. Narrative answers to questions are generally limited to one-half page, approximately 300 words. Do not repeat the instructions or include the instructions in the application. Do not repeat the question before narrative responses, but include a heading that identifies the response, for example, Reading or Professional Development. It is not necessary to begin each question on a new page. No attachments to the application are allowed except for the school assessment tables. Any other attachments will be discarded.
8. Public School Submission. Once they have been invited to apply, all public schools send their applications to the U.S. Department of Education at the following address:

J. Stephen O'Brien
No Child Left Behind – Blue Ribbon Schools Program
Office of Communications and Outreach
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue SW, 5E121
Washington, DC 20202-8173

Due to periodic disruptions to normal mail delivery, the Department strongly encourages the use of a delivery method other than first class mail (for example, U.S. Postal Service Express mail; a commercial carrier such as Federal Express or United Parcel Service; or a courier service) to transmit applications to the Department.

9. Private School Submission.

Private schools should consult the CAPE website at <http://www.capenet.org/brs.html>

PART VII - ASSESSMENT RESULTS

Public Schools

Each nominated school must show comparable results in reading (language arts or English) and mathematics for at least the last three years according to the criteria used by the CSSO to nominate the school. The school must show results beyond the first grade in the school. For example, ninth grade test results are not sufficient for 9-12 high schools. For formatting, if possible use or adapt the sample tables (no charts or graphs) at the end of this application.

If the state allows the use of the PSAT, PLAN, SAT, or ACT as part of its accountability system and at least 90 percent of the students in the appropriate classes must take the tests, schools must report the results. For these tests, schools must use national norms. The national school norms for the 90th and 60th percentiles can be found on the Department's website. If fewer than 90 percent of the students take a combination of the tests, that is, the ACT and the SAT or the PLAN and the PSAT, do not report the data.

The school must disaggregate all data for socioeconomic and ethnic/racial groups that comprise sufficient numbers to be a part of the state's assessment reports or are of sufficient numbers to be statistically significant. Show how all subgroups of students achieved at high levels or improved dramatically in achievement for at least three years. Explain any disparity among subgroups. The school must specify the number and percentage of students assessed by alternative methods.

All test data tables should be attached to the end of the application, with all pages numbered consecutively.

Private Schools

Report the school's assessment results in reading (language arts or English) and mathematics for at least the last three years for all grades tested on state tests or assessments referenced against national norms. For formatting, use or adapt the sample tables (no charts or graphs) at the end of this application. Present data for all grades tested for all standardized state assessments and for assessments referenced against national norms administered by the school.

If at least 90 percent of the students take the PSAT, PLAN, SAT, or ACT, high schools should report the data.

The school must disaggregate the data for students eligible for free or reduced-priced meals and for ethnic/racial groups if a specific group comprises 10 percent or more of the student body of the school. The school must disaggregate the data whether or not the school actually offers the federal school lunch program. Show how all subgroups of students achieved at high levels or improved dramatically in achievement for at least three years. Explain any disparity among subgroups.

The school must specify the number and percentage of students assessed by alternative methods. Attach all tables that show test data to the end of this application. Continue to number the pages consecutively.

*Change the sample table categories to use the state assessment system’s categories and terminology.

Provide information in a table similar to the one above for all tests in reading (language arts or English) and mathematics. Complete a separate table for reading (language arts or English) and mathematics at each grade. Explain any alternative assessments. See the sample table on page 4.

For the school and state, report scores as the percentage of students tested whose performance was scored at or above the cutpoint used by the state, for example, 1) basic, 2) proficient, and 3) advanced, or similar categories as defined by the state. States will vary in their terminology and cutpoints. If the state does not report scores using the categories of basic, proficient, and advanced, use the state’s categories and report data for all levels. Note that the reported percentage of students scoring above the basic cutpoint should be cumulative and include students scoring at or above the “meets state standard” level. For example, 91% are “at or above meets state standards” and 42% are “at exceeds state standards.”

Use the same basic format for subgroup results. Complete a separate form for each test and each grade level. Present at least three years of comparable data to show decreasing disparity among subgroups. Some subgroup examples are: (a) Socioeconomic Status [e.g., eligible for free and reduced-priced meals, not eligible for free and reduced-priced meals]; (b) Ethnicity [e.g., White, Black or African American, Hispanic or Latino, Asian/Pacific Islander, American Indian/Alaskan Native]; (c) Students with Disabilities.
