Dear NIH-AARP CLIC Study Participant,

Thank you for participating in the NIH-AARP CLIC Study. You were recently asked to complete the ASA24 and/or ACT-24 questionnaires. These questionnaires must be completed on the same day they are assigned to you. Since you were not able to complete the ASA24 and/or ACT-24 questionnaires last time, we have reassigned them to you today. Remember, it is important that you complete the ASA24 and/or ACT-24 by the end of today.

Please go to the study website www.\_\_\_\_\_.com and login using your username and password. You will see on the My Questionnaires tab that some of your questionnaires are ready to start. Please click on each questionnaire that is ready and complete it.

If you forgot your username or password, you can request it from the study website. If you encounter any problems logging in, please email AARPHelp@westat.com.

Subject Line – CLIC Study: Thank you for finishing your questionnaires.

Dear NIH-AARP CLIC Study Participant,

Congratulations! You have completed all of the questionnaires assigned to you as part of the NIH-AARP CLIC study. We greatly appreciate your participation in this study because the valuable information you have provided will help us examine the effects of diet, physical activity, and lifestyle on health.

We would like to find out what you thought about the CLIC Study. If you have not already completed the short Evaluation Survey found on the “My Questionnaires” tab, we ask that you take the time to fill it out. Please go to the study website www.\_\_\_\_\_.com and login using your username and password. Your input is extremely important to us!

Again, we want to thank you for your time and effort. To learn more about the NIH-AARP Diet and Health Study please go to www.dietandhealth.cancer.gov.

Many Thanks!
