Expires:

SPECIAL USE PERMIT FOR PUBLIC DISPLAY OF ALASKA REINDEER

By authority of 25 U.S.C. 500, the Reindeer Act of 1937, the Alaska Regional Director of the Bureau of Indian Affairs grants permission to the permittee, _____

_____, to keep up to _____ reindeer for public display. Permittee's mailing address is _____ Alaska

_____. The reindeer will be kept at _____ in/near the town of _____,

Alaska. This permit shall be in effect as signed and will continue for five (5) years, until surrendered by Permittee, or revoked by the Bureau, whichever occurs soonest.

The Permittee agrees to the following terms:

1. Use of the reindeer will be for public display only.
2. Permit is restricted to male or neutered reindeer only. The permit does not allow maintenance of a breeding herd.
3. The reindeer will be kept in healthy condition, treated in a humane manner, and provided with adequate food, clean shelter, veterinary care as needed, and protection from predatory actions, at no expense to the Bureau.
4. The Bureau shall have the right to access to inspect the reindeer and premises.
5. Permittee shall file a report with the Bureau not later than 30 September of each year, stating the number of reindeer in the permittee's possession and any change in status or condition of the reindeer from the previous year.
6. Permittee shall not assign or transfer permit of reindeer.
7. The reindeer shall not be used for any unlawful purpose.
8. At termination of this permit, the reindeer may be donated to the University of Alaska Reindeer Research Project, slaughtered, shipped out of Alaska, or otherwise disposed of by a means approved by the Bureau to be done within thirty days of notice to termination.

It is understood and agreed that this permit is not permanent, and maybe revoked for any breach of these terms, or at the discretion of the Bureau.
