

Instructions

NOTE: Read these instructions carefully. If you do not follow the instructions, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) may have to return your petition, which may delay final action. If more space is needed to complete an answer, continue on a separate sheet(s) of paper. USCIS is comprised of offices of the former Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS).

1. Who May File This Petition?

If you have been admitted to the United States as a refugee or if you have been granted status in the United States as an asylee, and as the principal applicant within the previous two years, you may file this petition. Approval of the I-730 petition for a relative abroad does not guarantee visa issuance. A separate Form I-730 must be filed for each family member.

You are not eligible to file this petition if:

- You were granted status in the United States as a derivative beneficiary or as an accompanying or following-to-join family member; or
- You were admitted to the United States as a refugee more than two years ago (see NOTE below), or
- You were granted status in the United States as an asylee more than two years ago (see NOTE below).

NOTE: The two-year limitation may be waived by USCIS for humanitarian reasons. Please attach a detailed explanation why the petitioner could not file within two years of being granted status. USCIS will make a decision based upon the explanation.

2. Who Is Eligible to Receive Accompanying or Following-to-Join Benefits?

Your spouse and/or your unmarried child(ren) under (21) years of age, whether inside or outside of the United States, are eligible for accompanying or following-to-join benefits provided that the family member(s) qualify under the conditions described below.

If you are a refugee:

- The relationship between you and your relative must have existed on the date you were admitted to the United States as a refugee and must continue to exist.
 - If the person you are filing for is a child who was conceived but not yet born on the date you were admitted to the United States, the relationship will be considered to exist as of the date you were admitted to the United States.
 - The mother of such child is not an eligible relative unless the mother was married to you, the principal refugee, when you were admitted to the United States.

If you are an asylee:

- The relationship between you and your relative must have existed on the date you were granted asylum in the United States and must continue to exist.

- If the person you are filing for is a child who was conceived but not yet born on the date you were granted asylum in the United States, the relationship will be considered to exist as of the date you were granted asylum in the United States.
- The mother of such child is not an eligible relative unless the mother was married to you, the principal asylee, when you were granted asylum in the United States.
- In all cases, if the family member you are filing for is your child, the child must be under 21 years of age when the petition is filed and continue to be unmarried at the time of approval.
- A spouse or child must be otherwise admissible as an immigrant (for refugee relatives) or not subject to the mandatory bars of 8 CFR 208.21 (for asylee relatives).

A petition may not be approved for the following persons:

- A spouse or child who has previously been granted refugee or asylee status.
- An adopted child, if the adoption took place after the child became 16 years old, or if the child has not been in legal custody and living with the adoptive parent(s) for at least two years.
- A stepchild, if the marriage that created this relationship took place after the child became 18 years old.
- A husband or wife, if each was not physically present at the marriage ceremony and the marriage was not consummated.
- A husband or wife, if it is determined that such alien has attempted or conspired to enter into a marriage for the purpose of evading immigration laws.
- A parent, sister, brother, grandparent, grandchild, nephew, niece, uncle, aunt, cousin or in-law.

3. What Are the General Filing Instructions?

Type or print legibly in black ink.

If you need extra space to complete any item, attach a separate continuation sheet. Indicate the item number, date and sign each sheet.

4. What Documents Do You Need to Prove Eligibility and a Family Relationship?

Certain documents are required to be submitted with this petition to show that you are eligible to file this petition and to show that a relationship exists between you and your relative. (If the documents described below are not available, see Sections 4 and 5 of these instructions):

If you were married to the child's mother, submit your marriage certificate. If you and/or the child's mother were previously married to other people, submit evidence of the legal termination of the previous marriage(s). If you were not married to the child's mother, submit evidence that the child was legitimated by civil authorities, submit evidence that a bona fide parent/child relationship exists or existed between you and the child. Evidence of a bona fide parent/child relationship should prove that you have emotional and financial ties to the child, and that you have shown genuine general welfare. Such evidence may include (but is not limited to) the following:

- Money order receipts;
- Canceled checks showing financial support of the child;
- Income tax returns in which you claim the child as a dependent and member of your household;

- Census record: State or federal census record showing name, place of birth, and date of birth or the age of the person(s) listed.

6. What If Secondary Evidence is Not Available?

Affidavits:
