Instructions for Making Knowledge Ratings

These questions are about work-related areas of knowledge. Knowledge areas are sets of facts and principles needed to address problems and issues that are part of a job. You will be asked about a series of different areas of knowledge and how they relate to workers in the occupation. As an occupational expert, first consider the different knowledge areas needed by workers to perform the occupation. Then, with this information in mind, please answer each question as if you were performing work that is typical of the occupation.

Each knowledge area in this questionnaire is named and defined.

For example:

Economics and Accounting

Knowledge of economic and accounting principles and practices, the financial markets, banking, and the analysis and reporting of financial data.

You are then asked two questions about each knowledge area:

A How important is the knowledge area to the performance of the occupation?

For example:

How important is ECONOMICS AND ACCOUNTING knowledge to the performance of the occupation?

Mark your answer by putting an X through the number that represents your answer.
Do not mark on the line between the numbers.

If you rate the knowledge area as Not Important to the performance of the occupation, mark the one [①] then skip over question B and proceed to the next knowledge area.

B What level of the knowledge is needed to perform the occupation?

To help you understand what we mean by level, we provide you with examples of job-related activities at different levels. For example:

Instructions for Work Context Questionnaire

Instructions

In this questionnaire you will be asked about working conditions. These questions are about the work setting and its possible hazards, the pace of work, and dealings with other people while on the job. As an occupational expert, first consider the different working conditions experienced by workers in the occupation. Then, with this information in mind, please answer each question as if you were performing work that is typical of the occupation.

Read each question carefully and look closely at answer choices after each question. Put an X through the number for the answer that best describes what workers experience in the occupation.

For example:

How many hours do workers work in a typical week in the occupation?

Less than 40 hours 40 hours More than 40 hours

① ————— ② ————— ③

Mark your answer by putting an X through the number that represents your answer.

- I have expertise on some aspects of the work performed, but not on many aspects.
- I have no expertise on the work performed in the occupation.

Please proceed to the next page.

Instructions: The next section presents a list of tasks. A task is an action or set of actions performed together to accomplish an objective. This list is specific to the occupation you are describing.

For each task, please make the following three ratings: Relevance, Frequency, and Importance. As an occupational expert, first consider the different tasks performed by workers in the occupation. Then, with this information in mind, please rate each task as if you were performing work that is typical of the occupation. The ratings are described as follows:

RELEVANCE. If the task is NOT RELEVANT at all to performance of the occupation, mark through the "0" in the NOT RELEVANT column. Carefully read the task before deciding whether it is RELEVANT or NOT RELEVANT to the occupation. If you select the "0" in the NOT RELEVANT column, however, there is no need to complete the IMPORTANCE and FREQUENCY ratings described below. If the task is part of the occupation, rate IMPORTANCE and FREQUENCY.

FREQUENCY. (Do not complete if NOT RELEVANT was selected.) Ask yourself, "How often is this task performed in the occupation?" For example, "Interact with potential customers" is a task that an employee in one occupation might perform only "once per week or less," but an employee in another occupation might perform "hourly or more often."

Rate the FREQUENCY with which a task is performed by marking through the appropriate number, from 1 (indicating that the task is performed once per year or less often) to 7 (indicating that the task is performed hourly or more often) on the FREQUENCY scale.

IMPORTANCE. (Do not complete if NOT RELEVANT was selected.) Ask yourself, "How important is this task to performance of the occupation?" For example, "Develop objectives and strategies to guide the organization" might be very important for an employee in one occupation, but less important for another occupation. For the second occupation, however, "Provide performance feedback to subordinates" might be very important.

Rate importance of the task for performance of the occupation by marking through the appropriate number, from 1 (indicating that the task is of no importance) to 5 (indicating that the task is extremely important) on the IMPORTANCE scale.

Please proceed to the next page.
