

EIA-912 WEEKLY UNDERGROUND NATURAL GAS STORAGE REPORT INSTRUCTIONS

PURPOSE

The Energy Information Administration (EIA) Form EIA-912, "Weekly Underground Natural Gas Storage Report," is used to collect information on weekly inventories of natural gas in underground storage facilities. Data are collected pursuant to the Federal Energy Administration (FEA) Act of 1974, Public Law 93-275. This report is mandatory under the FEA Act.

REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

The EIA-912 must be completed by recipients of the Form EIA-912. Companies receiving notification were statistically selected by the EIA from a listing of all underground natural gas storage operators in the United States.

WHEN TO SUBMIT

Form EIA-912, with information as of 9:00 a.m. on Friday, must be filed with the EIA by 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the Monday following the end of the report period (e.g., the "Weekly Underground Natural Gas Storage Report" as of 9:00 a.m. Friday January 11, 2008 must be received by 5 p.m., EST January 14, 2008). If Monday is a Federal holiday, the report must be filed by 5:00 p.m. the first working day after the holiday.

HOW TO REPORT

Instructions on where to report via mail, fax, secure file transfer, or email are printed on Form EIA-912.

SECURE FILE TRANSFER

Forms may be submitted through the Secure File Transfer System. The secure hypertext transfer protocol (HTTPS) is an industry standard method to send information over the web using a secure, encrypted process. All information is protected by 128-bit encryption to maintain the privacy and confidentiality of transmitted data. The Secure File Transfer System may be accessed through the following web address: <https://idc.eia.doe.gov/upload/noticeoog.jsp>.

You can also access the materials by following these steps:

- Go to EIA's website at www.eia.doe.gov
- Click on the Natural Gas category (this takes you to EIA's natural gas information page).
- Click on the Survey Forms link located in the reference box in the lower right corner.
- Select the materials you want.

Files must be saved to your personal computer. Data cannot be entered interactively on the website.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Please provide up-to-date company information.

EIA ID Number: Enter the 10-digit EIA ID Number. In the event an identification number has not been assigned, leave the space blank and contact the EIA at (202) 586-4993, a number will then be assigned by the EIA.

Company Name and Address: Enter the name and address of the company filing the report. Place an "x" in the box if there has been a change in the company name or address information since the last report.

Contact Name: Enter the name, telephone number, fax number, and e-mail address of the person to contact concerning the information on the report. The person listed should be the person most knowledgeable of the specific data reported. Place an "x" in the box if there has been a change in the contact information since the last report.

Report Period: The weekly report period refers to the week ending on Friday at 9:00 a.m. Indicate the month, day, and year (e.g., January 11, 2008 is: Month 01 Day 11 Year 2008).

Revision: Place an "x" in the box if your measure of working gas for the prior week in any region has been revised by 500 million cubic feet or more. Please submit a revised form for that region and indicate the appropriate Report Period on the form.

SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS

Reporting of preliminary or estimated data is encouraged, if necessary, to meet the due date.

Working Gas - Current Week: Enter the volume of working gas in storage (at 9:00 a.m. on Friday) by Region for all facilities your company operates.

Producing Region: The following states are included in the Producing Region: Alabama, Arkansas, Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Texas.

East Region: The following states are included in the East Region: Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Maryland, Maine, Michigan, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont, Virginia, Wisconsin, and West Virginia.

West Region: The following states are included in the West Region: Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Minnesota, Montana, Nevada, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming.

Comments: Describe any unusual or substantially different aspects of your operations that affected the data reported. If this week's report of working gas storage in any region reflects a reclassification of base and working gas relative to the prior week, please explain the change in this section.

DEFINITIONS

Please refer to these definitions before completing the survey form.

Base (Cushion) Gas: The volume of gas needed as a permanent inventory to maintain adequate storage reservoir pressures and deliverability rates.

Working (Top Storage) Gas: The volume of gas in the storage reservoir that is in addition to the base or cushion gas.

PROVISIONS REGARDING CONFIDENTIALITY OF INFORMATION

The information you provide on Form EIA-912 will be used for statistical purposes only. All the information the Energy Information Administration (EIA) collects for this survey about your company is confidential by law. In accordance with the Confidential Information Protection provisions of Title V, Subtitle A of Public Law 107-347 and other applicable Federal laws, your responses will be kept confidential and will not be disclosed in identifiable form to anyone other than employees or agents without your consent. By law, every EIA employee, as well as every agent, is subject to a jail term, a fine of up to $250,000, or both if he or she discloses ANY identifiable information about you.

Disclosure limitation procedures are applied to the statistical data published from EIA-912 survey information to ensure that the risk of disclosure of identifiable information is very small.

SANCTIONS

The timely submission of Form EIA-912 by those required to report is mandatory under Section 13(b) of the Federal Energy Administration Act of 1974 (FEAA) (Public Law 93-275), as amended. Failure to respond may result in a civil penalty of not more than $2,750 per day for each violation, or a fine of not more than $5,000 per day for each criminal violation. The government may bring a civil action to prohibit reporting violations which may result in a temporary restraining order or a preliminary or permanent injunction without bond. In such civil action, the court may also issue mandatory injunctions commanding any person to comply with these reporting requirements.

FILING FORMS WITH THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT AND ESTIMATED REPORTING BURDEN

Respondents are not required to file or reply to any Federal collection of information unless it has a valid OMB approved number. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.0 hours per response. This includes the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information including suggestions for reducing this burden to: Energy Information Administration, Statistics and Methods Group, EI-70, 1000 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, DC 20585; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.
