RECITALS

WHEREAS, Section 8401 of the Food, Conservation, and Energy Act of 2008 (P.L. 110-234, 122 Stat. 93) (Act) provides options for qualifying timber contracts;

WHEREAS, the Forest Service has determined and the Parties mutually recognize that this timber sale meets the conditions for a qualifying contract under Section 8401(a)(2) of the Act;

WHEREAS, the Forest Service has determined and the Parties mutually recognize that the rate at which this timber sale would be advertised on May 22, 2008 is at least 50 percent less than the sum of the original bid rates for all of the species of timber included in the qualifying contract;

WHEREAS, Purchaser desires the Forest Service to cancel the contract under Section 8401(b)(1) of the Act;

WHEREAS, the Parties consulted and the Forest Service determined the contractual obligations needed to bring each unit on which harvesting operations had begun to a logical stopping point.

WHEREAS, the Purchaser has completed the work necessary to bring each unit of harvesting operation to a logical stopping point, and the Forest Service has accepted such work;

WHEREAS, the Purchaser has paid the Forest Service an amount equal to 30 percent of the total value of the timber remaining in the contract based on the bid rates and has no outstanding charges under the contract under Section 8401(b)(1)of the Act;

Now Therefore, in consideration of the foregoing premises and for other good and valuable consideration, the Parties agree as follows:
