The National Cancer Institute
Cancer Bulletin* Survey

Dear Colleague,

I hope you will choose to participate in a survey being launched today by the National Cancer Institute.

NCI is conducting an online survey to gather comments about your experiences with its weekly publication, the NCI Cancer Bulletin. I invite you to complete this survey at your earliest convenience. NCI will use the results to determine ways to adapt the publication to best meet your needs.

To complete the survey, please go to <http://www.cancerbulletin-survey.org>, either by clicking on the URL or typing the address in your browser.

Thank you in advance for your participation. I welcome your opinion and will be pleased to share the results of the survey in an upcoming issue of the NCI Cancer Bulletin.

Sincerely,

Andrew C. von Eschenbach, M.D.
Director, National Cancer Institute

The National Cancer Institute Cancer Bulletin Survey

The National Cancer Institute is conducting a survey to gather comments about your experiences with the NCI Cancer Bulletin and to determine ways to improve it. We appreciate your taking time to complete this survey.

Your participation in this survey is completely voluntary. Please be assured that your responses will be kept confidential and will not be disclosed to anyone outside NCI or its contractor, Westat, except as otherwise required by law. Data will be provided to the NCI in aggregate form only, with any potentially identifying information removed. You may skip any questions that you prefer not to answer. This survey should take approximately 10 minutes to complete.

If you have any general questions about the study itself, please contact Nina Goodman at goodmann@mail.nih.gov or at (301) 435-7789. For technical problems, please contact Carl Setzer at carlsetzer@westat.com or at (800) 937-8281, ext. 5536.
