PART 1292--REPRESENTATION AND APPROPRIATION

1292.3005. Representation of others. Organizations qualified for recognition, require for recognition, withdrawal of recognition, reactivation of recognition, or representation of others.

1292.3006. Representation of others. Organizations qualified for recognition, require for recognition, withdrawal of recognition, reactivation of recognition, or representation of others.

1292.3007. Representation of others. Organizations qualified for recognition, require for recognition, withdrawal of recognition, reactivation of recognition, or representation of others.

§ 1292.1 Representation of others.

(a) A person restricted to representation may be represented by any of the following:

(1) Attorney in the United States. Any attorney as defined in § 1292.1(d) of this chapter.

(2) Law students and law graduates not yet admitted to the bar. A law student who is enrolled in an accredited law school, or a law graduate who is not yet admitted to the bar, provided that:

(i) He or she is appearing at the request of the person entitled to representation;

(ii) In the case of a law student, he or she has filed a statement that he or she is participating, under the direct supervision of a faculty member, licensed attorney, or accredited representative, in a legal aid program or clinic conducted by a law school or non-profit organization, and that he or she is appearing without direct or indirect remuneration from the alien he or she represents;

(iii) In the case of a law graduate, he or she has filed a statement that he or she is appearing under the supervision of a licensed attorney or accredited representative and that he or she is appearing without direct or indirect remuneration from the alien he or she represents.

(iv) The law student's or law graduate's appearance is permitted by the official before whom he or she wishes to appear (namely an immigration judge, district director, office director, regional director, the Commissioner, or the Board). The official or details may require that a law student be accompanied by the supervising faculty member, attorney, or accredited representative.

(v) Respectably identifiable. Any respectable individual of good moral character, provided that:

(i) He is appearing on an individual case basis, at the request of the person entitled to representation;

(ii) He is appearing without direct or indirect remuneration and files a written declaration to that effect;

(iii) He has a pre-existing relationship or connection with the person entitled to representation (e.g., as a relative, neighbor, clergyman, business associate or personal friend), provided that such requirement may be waived, in a matter of administrative division, in cases where adequate representation would not otherwise be available; and

(iv) His appearance is permitted by the official before whom he wishes to appear (namely, a special inquiry officer, district director, office director, regional commissioner, the Commissioner, or the Board), provided that such permission shall not be granted with respect to any individual who regularly engages in immigration and naturalization practice or preparation, or holder thereof out to the public as qualified to do so.

(v) Accredited representatives. A person representing an organization described in § 1292.2 of this chapter who has been accredited by the Board.

(vi) Accredited officials. An accredited official, in the United States, of the government in which an alien owns, inhabits, or in which an alien owns, in his official capacity and with the alien's consent.

of a licensed attorney or accredited representative and that he or she is appearing without direct or indirect remuneration from the alien he or she represents; and

(vii) The law student's or law graduate's appearance is permitted by the official before whom he or she wishes to appear (namely an immigration judge, district director, office director, regional director, the Commissioner, or the Board). The official or details may require that a law student be accompanied by the supervising faculty member, attorney, or accredited representative.

(viii) Respectably identifiable. Any respectable individual of good moral character, provided that:

(i) He is appearing on an individual case basis, at the request of the person entitled to representation;

(ii) He is appearing without direct or indirect remuneration and files a written declaration to that effect;

(iii) He has a pre-existing relationship or connection with the person entitled to representation (e.g., as a relative, neighbor, clergyman, business associate or personal friend), provided that such requirement may be waived, in a matter of administrative division, in cases where adequate representation would not otherwise be available; and

(iv) His appearance is permitted by the official before whom he wishes to appear (namely, a special inquiry officer, district director, office director, regional commissioner, the Commissioner, or the Board), provided that such permission shall not be granted with respect to any individual who regularly engages in immigration and naturalization practice or preparation, or holder thereof out to the public as qualified to do so.

(v) Accredited representatives. A person representing an organization described in § 1292.2 of this chapter who has been accredited by the Board.

(vi) Accredited officials. An accredited official, in the United States, of the government in which an alien owns, inhabits, or in which an alien owns, in his official capacity and with the alien's consent.

(vii) The law student's or law graduate's appearance is permitted by the official before whom he or she wishes to appear (namely an immigration judge, district director, office director, regional director, the Commissioner, or the Board). The official or details may require that a law student be accompanied by the supervising faculty member, attorney, or accredited representative.

(viii) Respectably identifiable. Any respectable individual of good moral character, provided that:

(i) He is appearing on an individual case basis, at the request of the person entitled to representation;

(ii) He is appearing without direct or indirect remuneration and files a written declaration to that effect;

(iii) He has a pre-existing relationship or connection with the person entitled to representation (e.g., as a relative, neighbor, clergyman, business associate or personal friend), provided that such requirement may be waived, in a matter of administrative division, in cases where adequate representation would not otherwise be available; and

(iv) His appearance is permitted by the official before whom he wishes to appear (namely, a special inquiry officer, district director, office director, regional commissioner, the Commissioner, or the Board), provided that such permission shall not be granted with respect to any individual who regularly engages in immigration and naturalization practice or preparation, or holder thereof out to the public as qualified to do so.

(v) Accredited representatives. A person representing an organization described in § 1292.2 of this chapter who has been accredited by the Board.

(vi) Accredited officials. An accredited official, in the United States, of the government in which an alien owns, inhabits, or in which an alien owns, in his official capacity and with the alien's consent.

(vii) The law student's or law graduate's appearance is permitted by the official before whom he or she wishes to appear (namely an immigration judge, district director, office director, regional director, the Commissioner, or the Board). The official or details may require that a law student be accompanied by the supervising faculty member, attorney, or accredited representative.

Qualifications of organizations. A non-profit religious, charitable, social service, or similar organization established in the United States and recognized as such by the Board may designate a representative or representative to practice before the Service alone or the Service and the Board (including practice before the Immigration Court). Such organization must establish to the satisfaction of the Board that:

(1) It makes only nominal charges and assumes no economic membership dues for purposes of its activities; and

(2) It has at its disposal adequate knowledge, information and experience.

(b) Request for recognition. An organization having the qualifications prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section may file an application for recognition on a Form O-97 directly with the Board, along with proof of service of a copy of the application on the district director having jurisdiction over the case. In which the application is located. The district director, within 30 days from the date of service, shall forward to the Board a recommendation for approval or disapproval of the application and the reasons therefor, or request a specified period of time in which to conduct an investigation or otherwise obtain relevant information regarding the applicant. The district director shall include proof of service of a copy of such recommendation or request on the organization. The organization shall have 30 days in which to file a response with the Board to a recommendation by a district director that is other than favorable, along with proof of service of a copy of such response on the district director. If the Board approves a request for time to conduct an investigation, or in its discretion remains the application to the district director for further information, the organization shall be advised of the time granted for such purpose. The Service shall promptly forward the results of any investigation or inquiry to the Board, along with its recommendations for approval or disapproval and the reasons therefor, and proof of service of a copy of the results on the organization. The organization shall have 30 days from the date of such service to file a response with the Board to any matters raised therein, with proof of service of a copy of the response on the district director. Reasons for extension of filing time must be substantiated in writing with the district director and may be granted by the Board in its discretion. Once a time may be heard before the Board in its discretion at such date and time as the Board may direct. The organization and Service shall be informed by the Board of the action taken regarding an application. Any recognized organization shall promptly notify the Board of any changes in its name, address, or public telephone number.

(c) Withdrawal of recognition. The Board may withdraw the recognition of any organization which has failed to maintain the qualifications required by § 1292.2(a). Withdrawal of recognition may be accomplished in accordance with the following procedure:

(1) The Service, by the district director within whose jurisdiction the organization is located, may conduct an investigation into any organization it believes no longer meets the standards for recognition.

(2) If the investigation establishes to the satisfaction of the district director that withdrawal proceedings should be instituted, he shall cause a written statement of the grounds upon which withdrawal is sought to be served upon the organization, with notice to show cause why the recognition should not be withdrawn. The notice will call upon the organization to appear before a special inquiry officer for a hearing at a time and place stated, not less than 30 days after service of the notice.

(3) The special inquiry officer shall hold a hearing, receive evidence, make findings of fact, state his recommendations, and forward the complete record to the Board.

(4) The organization and the Service shall have the opportunity of appearing at oral argument before the Board at a time specified by the Board.

(5) The Board shall consider the entire record and render its decision. The order of the Board shall constitute the final disposition of the proceedings.

(d) Accreditation of representatives. An organization recognized by the Board under paragraph (b) of this section may apply for accreditation of persons of good moral character as its representatives. An organization may apply to have a representative accredited to practice before the Service alone or the Service and the Board (including practice before Immigration judges). An application for accreditation shall fully set forth the nature and extent of the proposed representative's experience and knowledge of immigration and naturalization law and procedure and the category of accreditation sought. The individual may submit an application on his or her own behalf. An application shall be filed directly with the Board, along with proof of service of a copy of the application on the district director having jurisdiction over the area in which the requesting organization is located. The district director, within 30 days from the date of service, shall forward to the Board a recommendation for approval or disapproval of the application and the reasons therefor, or request a specified period of time in which to conduct an investigation or otherwise obtain relevant information regarding the applicant. The district director shall include proof of service of a copy of such recommendation or request on the organization. The organization shall have 30 days in which to file a response with the Board to a recommendation by a district director that is other than favorable, with proof of service of a copy of such response on the district director. If the Board approves a request for time to conduct an investigation, or if the district director requests the application to the district director for further information, the organization shall be advised of the time granted for such purpose. The district director shall promptly forward the results of any investigation or inquiry to the Board, along with a recommendation for approval or disapproval and the reasons therefor, and proof of service of a copy of the submission on the organization. The organization shall have 30 days from the date of service of its response with the Board to any matters raised therein, with proof of service of a copy of the response on the district director. Requests for extensions of filing times must be submitted in writing with the reasons therefor and may be granted by the Board in its discretion. Oral argument may be heard before the Board in its discretion at such date and time as the Board may direct. The Board may approve or disapprove an application in whole or in part, and shall inform the organization and the district director of the action taken with regard to an application. The accreditation of a representative shall be valid for a period of three years only; however, the accreditation shall remain valid pending Board consideration of an application for renewal of accreditation. If the application is filed at least 60 days before the third anniversary of the date of the Board's prior accreditation of the representative, the accreditation terminates when the Board's recognition of the organization ceases for any reason or when the representative's employment or other connection with the organization ceases. The organization shall promptly notify the Board of such changes.

(e) Roster. The Board shall maintain an alphabetical roster of recognized organizations and their accredited representatives. A copy of the roster shall be furnished to the Commissioner and he shall be advised from time to time of changes therein.

§ 1292.3 Professional conduct for practitioners—Rules and procedures.

(a) General provisions—(1) Authority to act. An adjudicating official of the Board of Immigration Appeals (the Board) may impose disciplinary sanctions against any practitioner. If it finds it to be in the public interest to do so, it will be in the public interest to impose disciplinary sanctions against a practitioner who is adjudicated to practice before the Service when such person has engaged in criminal, unethical, or unprofessional conduct, or in previous behavior, as set forth in § 1200.102 of this chapter. In accordance with the disciplinary provisions set forth in part 1200 of this chapter, an adjudicating official or the Board may impose any of the following disciplinary sanctions:

- (i) Expulsion, which is permanent, from practice before the Board and the Immigration Courts or the Service, or before all three workplaces;
- (ii) Suspension, including immediate suspension, from practice before the Board and the Immigration Courts or the Service, or before all three workplaces;
- (iii) Public or private censure; or

(iv) Such other disciplinary sanctions as the adjudicating official or the Board deems appropriate.

(b) Persons subject to sanctions. Persons subject to sanctions include any practitioner. A practitioner is any attorney as defined in § 1200.1(4) of this chapter who does not represent the Federal Government, or any representative as defined in § 1200.1(i) of this chapter. Attorneys employed by the Department of Justice shall be subject to discipline pursuant to paragraph (1) of this section.

(c) Grounds of discipline as set forth in § 1200.102 of this chapter. It is deemed to be in the public interest for the adjudicating official or the Board to impose disciplinary sanctions as described in paragraph (a)(1) of this section against any practitioner who falls within one or more of the categories enumerated in § 1200.102 of this chapter, with the exception of paragraphs (e) and (f) of that section, but these categories do not constitute the exclusive grounds for which disciplinary sanctions may be imposed in the public interest. Nothing in this regulation should be read to denigrate the practitioner's duty to represent zealously his or her client within the bounds of the law.

(d) Immediate suspension and summary disciplinary proceedings. Any practitioner who is adjudicated to practice before the Service and who has been found guilty of, or pleaded guilty or non contented to, a serious crime, as defined in § 1200.102(b) of this chapter, or who has been debarred or suspended or has therein or final status by, or has resigned with an admission of misconduct from, the highest court of any State, possession, territory, commonwealth, or the District of Columbia, or any Federal court, a copy of the petition shall be forwarded to the Office of the General Counsel of DOJ, which may submit a written request to the Board that entry of any order immediately suspending a practitioner before the Service also apply to the practitioner's authority to practice before the Board or the Immigration Courts. Proof of service on the practitioner of
