

Link to Automated SF 86 Review Tool

Below, please find a link to the SF 86 review tool. The text documents contain the full proposed content for review. The link to the SF 86 review tool is provided in order to demonstrate the varying burden depending on how the questions relate to the respondent's personal history. This tool is only provided for the SF 86. This tool is not e-QIP, nor does it contain any of e-QIP's validation or functionality. To this end, please do not comment on the functionality of the tool. We are accepting comments on content only, which should be reviewed using the attached document and not the tool in the link provided below.
