INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING FORM RAC-1000R

Producer's address should be the address to which you wish correspondence mailed.

Location of production unit - In addition to numbered address, please provide location (for example - NW corner of Shields and Dickenson - or East side of Road 28 approximately half-way between Avenues 7 and 8).

A production unit must be physically identifiable having permanent boundaries (either natural or manmade). No partial production units will be accepted for vine removal. A production unit is the planted acres and does not include home sites, yard acres or roads.

Creditable fruit weight (meeting weight) of raisins produced on a production unit must be verifiable from delivery records furnished RAC by handlers to whom you delivered raisins. If you have more than one production unit, the raisin deliveries should be identified as John Doe - River Ranch; Bluff Ranch; Ranch #1, Ranch #2, etc. The producer may be requested to provide additional information when the delivery record is not readily identifiable with the production unit on the application.

Any production units that have revised weights subsequent to the program announcement date may be referred to the RAC Executive Committee for review prior to approval.

Documents required include copies of any TWO of the following: Plat map from County Hall of Records, !rrigation Tax Bill, County Tax Bill or any other Document containing an Assessor's Parcel Number.

If you wish to divert more than one production unit and wish a diversion certificate to be issued for each unit, please complete and submit a separate application for a diversion certificate for each unit.

The applicant, whose application has been approved, agrees that by participating in the Raisin Diversion Program, the information in the application may be disclosed to the Committee, its representatives or agents.

The applicant, whose application has been approved, authorizes Committee representatives and agents to have access to the production unit in the diversion program during reasonable daytime hours during the crop year to confirm compliance with the program. Such access shall include entry into production unit(s), if deemed necessary.
