Informed Consent

Hello, my name is _____ and I am working with a research center at Harvard University to better understand the effects of cluster munitions and unexploded remnants of war on households and communities. We would very much appreciate your participation in a survey that asks you about your family, your work, and your opinions and perceptions on your living in this community and your plans for the future. We think this information will be helpful in guiding the social and economic development of communities affected by landmines and the effects of de-mining activities in your area. The survey usually takes 45 minutes to complete. Whatever information you provide will be safeguarded to the fullest extent possible and we do not plan to share any information that might identify individual participants. We will not record your name or the names of your family members.

Participation in this survey is voluntary and you can choose not to answer any you do not wish to answer. You can choose to stop participating at any time without obligation. However, we hope that you will participate in

<sup>1</sup> Public reporting burden of this collection of information is estimated to average 1 hour per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. END OF INTERVIEW: Thank you very much for answering these questions and for spending this time with us. We have learned a lot from talking with you and your views are very important in helping us understand the situation in your village/area. We will prepare a report about the situation that is based on what we have learned from you and the other men and women in [your country] whom we have talked with. We will submit this report to the international humanitarian community. If you are interested in hearing about what our report says, please be in touch with [provide name of local coordinator for the study]. Good-bye and we wish you the best of luck for the future. Thank you very much again
