Do You Have To File Form 2210?

Part I Required Annual Payment

1 Enter your 2008 tax after credits from Form 1040, line 56 (see instructions if not filing Form 1040)	1
2 Other taxes, including self-employment tax (see page 2 of the instructions)	2
3 Refundable credits. Enter the total of your earned income credit, additional child tax credit, credit for federal tax paid on fuels, health coverage tax credit, refundable credit for prior year minimum tax, first-time homebuyer credit, and recovery rebate credit	3	()
4 Current year tax. Combine lines 1, 2, and 3. If less than $1,000, you do not owe a penalty; do not file Form 2210	4
5 Multiply line 4 by 90% (.90)	5
6 Withholding taxes. Do not include estimated tax payments. (see page 2 of the instructions)	6
7 Subtract line 6 from line 4. If less than $1,000, you do not owe a penalty; do not file Form 2210	7
8 Maximum required annual payment based on prior year's tax (see page 2 of the instructions)	8
9 Required annual payment. Enter the smaller of line 5 or line 8	9

Next: Is line 9 more than line 6?

- No. You do not owe a penalty. Do not file Form 2210 unless box E below applies.
- Yes. You may owe a penalty, but do not file Form 2210 unless one or more boxes in Part II below applies.
 - If box B, C, or D applies, you must figure your penalty and file Form 2210.
 - If only box A or E (or both) applies, file only page 1 of Form 2210. You are not required to figure your penalty; the IRS will figure it and send you a bill for any unpaid amount. If you want to figure your penalty, you may use Part III or IV as a worksheet and enter your penalty on your tax return, but file only page 1 of Form 2210.

Part II Reasons for Filing. Check applicable boxes. If none apply, do not file Form 2210.

- A You request a waiver (see page 2 of the instructions) of your entire penalty. You must check this box and file page 1 of Form 2210, but you are not required to figure your penalty.
- B You request a waiver (see page 2 of the instructions) of part of your penalty. You must figure your penalty and waiver amount and file Form 2210.
- C Your income varied during the year and your penalty is reduced or eliminated when figured using the annualized income installment method. You must figure the penalty using Schedule AI and file Form 2210.
- D Your penalty is lower when figured by treating the federal income tax withheld from your income as paid on the dates it was actually withheld, instead of in equal amounts on the payment due dates. You must figure your penalty and file Form 2210.
- E You filed or are filing a joint return for either 2007 or 2008, but not for both years, and line 8 above is smaller than line 5 above. You must file page 1 of Form 2210, but you are not required to figure your penalty (unless box B, C, or D applies).

Part III Short Method

Can You Use the Short Method?

You may use the short method if:

- You made no estimated tax payments (or your only payments were withheld federal income tax), or
- You paid the same amount of estimated tax on each of the four payment due dates.

Must You Use the Regular Method?

You must use the regular method (Part IV) instead of the short method if:

- You made any estimated tax payments late,
- You checked box C or D in Part II, or
- You are filing Form 1040NR or 1040NR-EZ and you did not receive wages as an employee subject to U.S. income tax withholding.

Note: If any payment was made earlier than the due date, you may use the short method, but using it may cause you to pay a larger penalty than the regular method. If the payment was only a few days early, the difference is likely to be small.

Instructions for Form 2210

Underpayment of Estimated Tax by Individuals, Estates, and Trusts

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

General Instructions

What's New—Disaster Areas

Generally, required estimated tax payment deadlines were extended for taxpayers affected by federally declared disasters. You will be granted a waiver of all or part of your underpayment of tax penalty for late payments due to such disaster. See Federally declared disaster under Waiver of Penalty on page 2.

Purpose of Form

Generally, use Form 2210 to see if you owe a penalty for underpaying your estimated tax and, if you do, to figure the amount of the penalty. If you are not required to file Form 2210, you can use it to figure your penalty if you wish to do so. In that case, enter the penalty on your return, but do not file Form 2210.

Who Must File Form 2210

In most cases, you do not need to file Form 2210. The IRS will figure any penalty you owe and send you a bill. See The IRS Will Figure the Penalty for You below. Use the flowchart at the top of page 1 of Form 2210 to see if you must file the form.

The IRS Will Figure the Penalty for You

Because Form 2210 is complicated, we strongly encourage you to let the IRS figure the penalty. If you owe a penalty, we will send you a bill. If you file your return by April 15, 2009, we will not charge you interest on the penalty if you pay by the date specified on the bill.

If you want us to figure the penalty for you, complete your return as usual. Leave the penalty line on your return blank; do not file Form 2210.

See Part II of the form. If box B, C, or D is checked, you must figure the penalty yourself and attach a completed Form 2210 to your return.

Other Methods of Figuring the Penalty

We realize that there are different ways to figure the correct penalty. You do not have to use the method used on Form 2210 as long as you enter the correct penalty amount on the penalty line of your return.

However, if you are required to file Form 2210 because one or more of the boxes in Part II applies to you, you must complete certain lines and enter the penalty on the estimated tax penalty line of your return.

- If you use the short method, check the applicable boxes in Part II, complete lines 1 through 14, and enter the penalty on line 17 and the applicable line of your tax return.
- If you use the regular method, check the applicable boxes in Part II, complete lines 1 through 9 and lines 18 through 26, and enter the penalty on line 35 and the applicable line of your tax return.
- If you use the annualized income installment method, check the applicable boxes in Part II, complete lines 1 through 9, Schedule AI, and then lines 18 through 26. Enter the penalty on line 35 and the applicable line of your tax return.

Who Must Pay the Underpayment Penalty

In general, you may owe the penalty for 2008 if you did not pay at least the smaller of:

- 90% of the tax shown on your 2008 tax return, or
- 100% of the tax shown on your 2007 tax return (110% of that amount if you are not a farmer or fisherman and the adjusted gross income (AGI) shown on that return is more than $150,000, or, if married filing separately for 2008, more than $75,000).

The penalty is figured separately for each installment due date. Therefore, you may owe the penalty for an earlier due date even if you paid enough tax later to make up the underpayment. This is true even if you are due a refund when you file your tax return. However, you may be able to reduce or eliminate the penalty by using the annualized income installment method. For details, see the Schedule AI instructions beginning on page 5.

Return. In these instructions, "return" refers to your original return. However, an amended return is considered the original return if it is filed by the due date (including extensions) of the original return. Also, a joint return that replaces previously filed separate returns is considered the original return.

Exceptions to the Penalty

You will not have to pay the penalty if either (1) or (2) applies.

1. You had no tax liability for 2007, you were a U.S. citizen or resident alien for the entire year (or an estate of a domestic decedent or a domestic trust), and your 2007 tax return was (or would have been had you been required to file) for a full 12 months.

2. The total tax shown on your 2008 return minus the amount of tax you paid through withholding is less than $1,000. To determine whether the total tax is less than $1,000, complete lines 1 through 7.

Estates and trusts. No penalty applies to either of the following.

- A decedent's estate for any tax year ending before the date that is 2 years after the decedent's death.
- A trust that was treated as owned by the decedent if the trust will receive the residue of the decedent's estate under the will (or if no will is admitted to probate, the trust primarily responsible for paying debts, taxes, and expenses of administration) for any tax year ending before the date that is 2 years after the decedent's death.

Special Rules for Farmers and Fishermen

If you meet both tests 1 and 2 below, you do not owe a penalty for underpaying estimated tax.

1. Your gross income from farming or fishing is at least two-thirds of your annual gross income from all sources for 2007 or 2008.
2. You filed Form 1040 or 1041 and paid the entire tax due by March 2, 2009.

See chapter 2 of Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, for the definition of gross income from farming and fishing.

If you meet test 1 but not test 2, use Form 2210-F, Underpayment of Estimated Tax by Farmers and Fishermen, to see if you owe a penalty. If you do not meet test 1, use Form 2210.

Waiver of Penalty

If you have an underpayment, all or part of the penalty for that underpayment will be waived if the IRS determines that:

- In 2007 or 2008, you retired after reaching age 62 or became disabled, and your underpayment was due to reasonable cause, or
- The underpayment was due to a casualty, disaster, or other unusual circumstance, and it would be inequitable to impose the penalty.

Federally declared disaster. Certain estimated tax payment deadlines for taxpayers who reside or have a business in a federally declared disaster area are postponed for a period during and after the disaster. During the processing of your tax return, the IRS automatically identifies taxpayers located in a covered disaster area (by county or parish) and applies the appropriate penalty relief. Do not file Form 2210 if your underpayment was due to a federally declared disaster. If you still owe a penalty after the automatic waiver is applied, we will send you a bill.

Individuals, estates, and trusts not in a covered disaster area but whose books, records, or tax professionals' offices are in a covered area are also entitled to relief. Also eligible are relief workers affiliated with a recognized government or charitable organization assisting in the relief activities in a covered disaster area. If you meet either of these eligibility requirements, you must call the IRS disaster hotline at 1-866-562-5227 and identify yourself as eligible for this relief.

Details on the applicable disaster postponement period can be found at <http://www.irs.gov/individuals/index.html>. Select Tax Relief in Disaster Situations and then the federally declared disaster that affected you.

If requesting a waiver, do the following.

- Check box A or box B in Part II.
- If you checked box A, complete only page 1 of Form 2210 and attach it to your tax return (you are not required to figure the amount of penalty to be waived).
- If you checked box B, complete Form 2210 through line 16 (line 34 if you use the regular method) without regard to the waiver. Enter the amount you want waived in parentheses on the dotted line next to line 17 (line 35 for the regular method). Subtract this amount from the total penalty you figured without regard to the waiver, and enter the result on line 17 (line 35 for the regular method).
- Attach Form 2210 and a statement to your return explaining the reasons you were unable to meet the estimated tax requirements and the time period for which you are requesting a waiver.
- If you are requesting a waiver due to retirement or disability, attach documentation that shows your retirement date (and your age on that date) or the date you became disabled.
- If you are requesting a waiver due to a casualty, disaster (other than a federally declared disaster as discussed above), or other unusual circumstance, attach documentation such as copies of police and insurance company reports.

The IRS will review the information you provide and decide whether to grant your request for a waiver.

Specific Instructions

Part I—Required Annual Payment

Complete lines 1 through 9 to figure your required annual payment.

Exception. If you and your spouse file a joint return after the due date to replace previously filed separate returns, use the amounts shown on the joint return to figure your underpayment.

Line 1

- Additional tax on income you received from a nonqualified deferred compensation plan that fails to meet certain requirements.
- Household employment taxes, before subtracting any advance EIC payments made to your employees. Do not include this amount if you will enter -0- on Form 2210, line 6, and the amount on line 4 (excluding household employment taxes) would be less than $1,000.
- Additional tax on recapture of a charitable contribution deduction relating to a fractional interest in tangible personal property.

Line 6

Enter the taxes withheld from Form 1040, lines 62 and 65; Form 1040A, line 38, plus any excess social security and tier 1 railroad retirement tax entered on line 43; Form 1040NR, lines 58, 60, 65, 66a, 66b, 67a, and 67b; or Form 1040NR-EZ, line 18. For an estate or trust, enter the amount from Form 1041, line 24e.

Line 8

Figure your 2007 tax using the taxes and credits shown on your 2007 tax return. Use the same type of taxes and credits as shown on lines 1, 2, and 3 of this Form 2210.

If you are filing a joint return for 2008, but you did not file a joint return for 2007, add the tax shown on your 2007 return to

Line 25

If line 25 is zero for all payment periods, you do not owe a penalty. But if you checked box C or D in Part II, you must file Form 2210 with your return. If you checked box E, you must file page 1 of Form 2210 with your return.

In certain circumstances, the IRS will waive all or part of the underpayment penalty. See Waiver of Penalty on page 2.

Section B—Figure the Penalty

Before completing Section B, read the following instructions through Rate Periods 3 and 4 on page 5.

Figure the penalty for each period by applying the appropriate rate against each underpayment shown on line 25. The penalty is figured for the number of days that the underpayment remained unpaid.

Your payments are applied first to any underpayment balance on an earlier installment. It does not matter if you designate a payment for a later period. See Example 2 below.

The rates are established at various times throughout the year. For the period covered by the 2008 Form 2210, there are four rates in effect over four rate periods. If an underpayment remained unpaid for more than one rate period, the penalty on that underpayment will be figured using more than one computation.

Use lines 27, 29, 31, and 33 to figure the number of days the underpayment remained unpaid. Use lines 28, 30, 32, and 34 to figure the actual penalty amount by applying the rate to the underpayment for the number of days it remained unpaid.

Example 2. You had a $500 underpayment remaining after your April 15 payment. The June 15 installment required a payment of $1,200. On June 10, you made a payment of $1,200 to cover the June 15 installment. However, $500 of this payment is applied first to the April 15 installment. The penalty for the April 15 installment is figured from April 15 to June 10 (56 days). The amount remaining to be applied to the June 15 installment is $700.

Total days per rate period. If an underpayment remained unpaid for an entire rate period, use the chart below to determine the number of days to enter in each column. The chart is organized in the same format as Form 2210, Part IV, Section B.

4 (line 33)	105	105	105	90

For example, if you have an underpayment on line 25, column (a), but Table 1 shows no payments made by 4/15/08, you would enter “76” on line 27, column (a).

TIP When you make a payment during a rate period, see Table 4-1 (Pub. 505, chapter 4) for an easy way to figure the number of days the payment is late.

Rate Period 1

First, complete Section B, column (a), lines 27 through 34, for an underpayment shown on line 25, column (a). If there is also an underpayment shown in column (b), (c), or (d) on line 25, then complete lines 27 through 34 for those columns in a similar manner.

Line 27

If there was only one payment made between 4/15/08 and 6/30/08, enter on line 27, column (a), the number of days from 4/15/08 to the date that payment was made. If no payments are listed, enter “76” (see Table 2 on this page), the number of days until 6/30/08, the end of the first rate period.

Example 3. You had an underpayment of $5,000 on line 25, column (a), and your first payment shown in Table 1 was made on 4/30/08 in the amount of $3,000. Enter “15” (number of days from 4/15 to 4/30) on line 27, column (a).

More than one payment made. If more than one payment was applied to fully pay the underpayment amount, enter the number of days after the due date each payment was made.

Example 4. Assume the same facts as in Example 3. You made a second payment of $5,000 on June 15. Since the underpayment amount for column (a) was $5,000, after you made the first $3,000 payment April 30, your new underpayment amount would be $2,000. That was paid June 15, 61 days after the due date (4/15). Enter “15” and “61” on line 27, column (a) (see illustration under Example 5 below).

Line 28

Make the computation requested on line 28 and enter the result. If more than one payment was required to fully satisfy the underpayment amount, you will need to make a separate computation for each payment. See the examples below and in chapter 4 of Pub. 505.

Example 5. Assume the same facts as in Example 4. On line 28, enter the penalty for each underpayment: $7.38 ($$3,000 \times (15 \div 366) \times .06$) and $20 ($$2,000 \times (61 \div 366) \times .06$). The entries are illustrated below.

		4/15/08
27	Days:	15 / 61
28	$	7.38 / 20.00

Since the underpayment balance in column (a) is fully satisfied, next go to column (b). See Example 6 below.

Example 6. Assume the same facts as in Example 4 and Example 5. Your June 15 payment of $5,000 would have fully paid the second period underpayment amount (column b), but because payments are applied first to an underpayment balance in an earlier period, your second required installment is unpaid by $2,000.

The next unapplied payment is $5,000 made on 9/15/08. On line 27, column (b), enter “15”—the number of days from 6/15 to 6/30, the end of the first rate period. On line 28, enter $4.92 ($$2,000 \times (15 \div 366) \times .06$).

		(a)	(b)
		4/15/08	6/15/08
27	Days:	15 / 61	15
28	$	7.38 / 20.00	4.92

The remaining underpayment balance will be calculated in the second rate period on lines 29 and 30, column (b). See Example 7 on page 5.

Rate Period 2

If an underpayment balance remains after applying any payments made during the first rate period, figure the penalty attributable to that balance on lines 29 and 30. Generally, use the same steps as explained under the instructions for Rate Period 1, but use the dates and interest rate shown on lines 29 and 30.

Line 29

Enter on line 29, column (a), the number of days from 6/30/08 to the date of the first unapplied payment made during the second rate period. If there are no unapplied payments, enter "92" (see Table 2 earlier).

Line 30

Example 7. Assume the same facts as in Example 6. The $2,000 underpayment for column (b) was paid in full when the third estimated tax payment was made on 9/15/08.

Enter "77" on line 29, column (b)—the number of days from 6/30/08 to 9/15/08. In the same column, enter $21.04 on line 30 ($2,000 × (77 ÷ 366) × .05). See illustration below.

	(a)	(b)
	6/30/08	6/30/08
29	Days:	Days: 77
30	$	$ 21.04

Rate Periods 3 and 4

If an underpayment balance remains for these rate periods, calculate the penalty using the same steps as explained under the instructions for Rate Period 1, but use the dates and interest rate on lines 31 and 32 for rate period 3 and lines 33 and 34 for rate period 4.

Schedule AI—Annualized Income Installment Method

If your income varied during the year because, for example, you operated your business on a seasonal basis, you may be able to lower or eliminate the amount of one or more required installments by using the annualized income installment method. Use Schedule AI to figure the required installments to enter on Form 2210, Part IV, line 18.

 If you use Schedule AI for any payment due date, you must use it for all payment due dates.

To use the annualized income installment method to figure the penalty, you must do all of the following.

1. Complete Schedule AI, Part I (and Part II, if necessary). Enter the amounts from Schedule AI, Part I, line 25, columns (a) through (d), in the corresponding columns of Form 2210, Part IV, line 18.
2. Complete Part IV to figure the penalty.
3. Check box C in Part II.
4. Attach Form 2210, Parts I, II, IV, and Schedule AI to your return.

Additional information. See Pub. 505, chapter 4, for more details about the annualized income installment method and a completed example. Estates and trusts, see Notice 87-32.

Individuals filing Form 1040NR or 1040NR-EZ. If you are filing Form 1040NR or 1040NR-EZ and you did not receive wages as an employee subject to U.S. income tax withholding, follow these modified instructions for Schedule AI.

1. Skip column (a).
2. Enter on line 1 your income for the period that is effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business.
3. Increase the amount on line 17 by the amount determined by multiplying your income for the period that is not effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business by the following.
 - In column (b), 72%.
 - In column (c), 45%.
 - In column (d), 30%.

However, if you can use a treaty rate lower than 30%, use the percentages determined by multiplying your treaty rate by 2.4, 1.5, and 1, respectively.

4. Enter on line 22, column (b), one-half of the amount from Form 2210, Part I, line 9. In columns (c) and (d), enter one-fourth of that amount.

5. Skip column (b), lines 20 and 23.

Part I—Annualized Income Installments

To figure the amount of each required installment, Schedule AI selects the smaller of the annualized income installment or the regular installment (that has been increased by the amount saved by using the annualized income installment method in figuring any earlier installments).

Line 1

For each period (column), figure your total income minus your adjustments to income. Include your share of partnership or S corporation income or loss items for the period.

If you are self-employed, be sure to take into account the deduction for one-half of your self-employment tax. To figure this amount for each period, complete Schedule AI, Part II, and divide the amount in columns (a) through (d) on line 34 by 8, 4.8, 3, and 2, respectively.

Line 2

Estates and trusts, do not use the amounts shown in columns (a) through (d). Instead, use 6, 3, 1.71429, and 1.09091, respectively, as the annualization amounts.

Line 6

If you itemized your deductions, multiply line 4 of each column by line 5 and enter the result on line 6. But if line 3 is more than $159,950 ($79,975 if married filing separately), use the worksheet below to figure the amount to enter on line 6. Complete the worksheet for each period, as necessary.

4. Subtract line 3 from line 2	4. _____
5. Is line 4 more than $122,500 (more than $61,250 if married filing separately)? <input type="checkbox"/> Yes. Multiply $2,333 by the number of exemptions you claimed and enter the result here and on Schedule AI, line 10. Do not complete the rest of this worksheet. <input type="checkbox"/> No. Divide line 4 by $2,500 ($1,250 if married filing separately). If the result is not a whole number, increase it to the next whole number (for example, increase 0.0004 to 1)	5. _____

Line 7

If you are an Indian student or business apprentice, enter your standard deduction from Form 1040NR, line 37; or Form 1040NR-EZ, line 11.

Line 10

For each column, multiply $3,500 by your total exemptions. But if line 3 is more than the amount shown below for your filing status, use the worksheet above to figure the amount to enter on line 10. Complete the worksheet for each period, as necessary.

Single	$159,950
Married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er)	$239,950
Married filing separately	$119,975
Head of household	$199,950

Estates, trusts, and Form 1040NR or 1040NR-EZ filers.

Use the exemption amount shown on your return unless you meet the AGI requirements for reducing your exemption. In that case, use the information and worksheet for Form 1041 or 1040NR, as appropriate, to determine the exemption based on annualized income (line 3), modified as required.

Line 12

To compute the tax, use the Tax Table, Tax Computation Worksheet, Qualified Dividends and Capital Gain Tax Worksheet, Schedule D Tax Worksheet, Foreign Earned Income Tax Worksheet, Schedule J, or Form 8615. See the instructions for your tax return for the applicable Tax Table or worksheet.

Line 14

Enter all of the other taxes you owed because of events that occurred during the months shown in the column headings. Include the same taxes used to figure Form 2210, Part I, line 2 (except self-employment tax), plus the tax from Form 4972, Tax on Lump-Sum Distributions; Form 8814, Parents' Election To Report Child's Interest and Dividends; and any alternative minimum tax (AMT).

Line 16

For each column, enter the credits you are entitled to because of events that occurred during the months shown in the column headings. These are the credits you used to arrive at the amounts on lines 1 and 3 of Part I, Required Annual Payment.

When figuring your credits, annualize any item of income or deduction used to figure each credit. For example, if your earned income (and AGI) for the first period (column (a)) is $8,000 and you qualify for the earned income credit (EIC), use your annualized earned income ($32,000) to figure your EIC for column (a). See the example under Completing Schedule AI, in chapter 4 of Pub. 505.

Part II—Annualized Self-Employment Tax

If you had net earnings from self-employment during any period, complete Part II for that period to figure your annualized self-employment tax.

If you are married and filing a joint return and both you and your spouse had net earnings from self-employment, complete a separate Part II for each spouse. Enter on line 13 the combined amounts from line 34 of both Parts II.

Line 26

To figure your net earnings from self-employment on line 26, multiply your net profit from all trades or businesses for each period by 92.35% (.9235).
