

Instructions

General Information.

1. Who May Use This Form?

If you are experiencing problems during the adjudication of an immigration benefit with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), you can submit this worksheet form. You may also use this form to submit a case problem on behalf of somebody else who experiences a case problem with USCIS. If you submit a case problem on behalf of somebody other than yourself, you should ensure that the person the case problem is about (the applicant for a USCIS immigration benefit, or the petitioner who seeks to obtain an immigration benefit for a third party) consents to your inquiry (see section 15).

2. Do I Have to Use This Form to Submit a Case Problem to CIS Ombudsman?

You do not have to use this form to submit your case problem to CIS Ombudsman. However, by submitting a properly completed form, the CIS Ombudsman will receive the necessary information to process your case problem. If you do not use the form and do not provide us with the necessary information, you may experience a delay in the processing of your case problem.

3. When Should I Submit a Case Problem to CIS Ombudsman?

You should contact the CIS Ombudsman if you have an ongoing or immediate issue with USCIS, such as:

- You are facing, or are about to face, an immediate adverse action or impact, an emergency or any other type of significant hardship caused by an action/inaction/delay in processing by USCIS, or a problem, which could not be resolved through the normal processes provided for by USCIS;
- Your case experienced processing delays beyond anticipated processing times;
- You will incur, or are about to incur, significant and unusual costs (including fees for professional representation that are not normally incurred);
- Have not received a response or resolution within the anticipated time frames as published by USCIS.

4. Do I Have to Do Anything Before I Can Submit a Case Problem to CIS Ombudsman?

It is best if you contact our office for assistance after utilizing other resources for case problems with USCIS, such as:

- USCIS Case Status Service Online at <http://www.uscis.gov>;
- Made an InfoPass appointment at the local office;
- Contacted the National Customer Service Center (NCSC) for assistance at (800) 375-5283.

While we do not require that you take these steps before you contact our office, the above listed resources can resolve many frequently asked questions such as (1) what forms to file; (2) where to file a particular form; (3) how to notify USCIS of a change of address; (4) how to inquire about processing times at the various service centers or field offices or (5) how to receive case status updates. Additionally, certain information can be obtained from USCIS directly, such as information about individual immigration benefits.

NOTICE: Please be aware that CIS Ombudsman cannot provide legal advice. Our office does not have the statutory authority to tell you what type of immigration benefit you may be eligible for or how to remedy your particular immigration situation.

When you submit your information and case problem to the office of CIS Ombudsman, you are consenting to our review of your information and contacting USCIS on your behalf. You also consent to the release of your information to authorities within USCIS or any person acting on behalf of USCIS.

In addition, it's the CIS Ombudsman's statutory mandate under the Homeland Security Act, Section 452, to capture and address systemic problems. As such, individual case problems serve as one of the basis to establish current systemic trends and problems individuals and employers experience during the immigration benefits seeking process. For this purpose, we will remove your personal information and use the remaining information collected for statistical purposes.

The scope of your consent to release your information is limited to the furtherance of resolving the case problem associated with your case, and the capturing of declassified data to establish systemic immigration problems occurring at USCIS.

The following instructions will assist you in completing the form correctly. The items numbered below correspond to the section number of the form requesting the particular information:

- 1. Name of subject: The "subject" is the person the case is about. Please enter the person's full legal name (first, middle, last name). If the person possesses an alias, provide your alias by indicating "aka" and then listing the alias and all other legal names.

- 5. Alien ("A") Number: Provide your alien ("A") number, if applicable. Note that not every person has an alien number assigned by USCIS. The "A" number can be found on many frequently issued USCIS documents, such as work permits or Notices of Actions.

6. Type of case problem: Indicate whether the case problem concerns an individual or an employer.

7. Person preparing this form: Indicate whether the preparer of this form is the person the case problem is about ("the subject"), an organization, attorney/representative or whether you are completing this form in any other capacity (such as a friend of the family, friend, uncle, etc.).

Important: If you are the beneficiary of an immigration application and the one submitting the case problem, you will need the consent of the individual who submitted the petition on your behalf ("the Petitioner"). In this case, you are (although the beneficiary) simply a representative of the Petitioner, and will need the consent of the Petitioner to submit this case problem (please see also Section 15).

8. Applications and petitions filed: List all applications/petitions that are currently pending with USCIS and that pertain to the case problem you are experiencing. List the applications/petitions by identifying the date when the application/petition was received by USCIS (Receive date); the form number of the application/petition, which may be located on the lower right corner of USCIS form (e.g. , Form I-485); and the name of USCIS form (e.g. Application to Register Permanent Residence or to Adjust Status).

If you are unsure about the category, submit as much information as you can in Number 12 of the form, Description of case problem. If possible, provide us with a copy of the application you filed with USCIS so that we will be able to determine what immigration category you are seeking.

You are also a representative if you are, for example, a friend of the person the case problem is about, and if you would like to assist the individual in resolving the case problem.

15. Consent: For privacy reasons, if you wish USCIS to disclose all the information in the file, we require the consent of the petitioner (the person who filed the petition with USCIS). As a general rule, the person who filed the application/petition with USCIS has to consent to the submission of a case problem to our office. This general rule, however, does not apply if the beneficiary is a lawful permanent resident or U. S. citizen.

16. Verification: If the person who submitted the inquiry is also the subject of the inquiry, this section should be signed and dated by the subject of the inquiry. If a person is the representative and acts on behalf of the subject the case problem is about, the representative should not sign and date the verification statement.
