LETTERHEAD

FROM THE DIRECTOR
U.S. CENSUS BUREAU

Your address is among those selected for a 2010 Census reinterview, which the Census Bureau is conducting. We recently conducted the United States 2010 Census. Like any business, we are interested in maintaining the quality of our product. For that reason, we are doing a survey to evaluate the data we collected in the census this year. Your participation is vital to this important evaluation.

We are conducting this survey under the authority of Title 13, United States Code, Section 9. This means your answers are confidential and the Census Bureau cannot give out information that identifies you or your household. Your answers will only be used for statistical purposes, and for no other purpose.

A Census Bureau representative will contact you by telephone within the next few weeks to collect information about your household. Your answers will help us compile statistics that will aid the government in planning for future censuses.

Thank you for your cooperation in this essential survey. The Census Bureau is grateful to you for your help.

Sincerely,

Director, U.S. Census Bureau
