

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The information within Public Law 101–391 requires FEMA to establish and maintain a national master list of fire safety in hotels, motels and other places of public accommodation (property). The purpose of this public law is to assure the traveling public of fire safe accommodations and resulted from a number of high-loss fires that occurred in the past.

Collection of Information

Title: Federal Hotel and Motel Fire Safety Declaration Form.
Type of Information Collection: Revision of a currently approved collection.
OMB Number: 1660–0068.
Form Numbers: FEMA Form 516–1.
Abstract: FEMA will be collecting information from hotels and motels regarding the existence of smoke detectors and sprinkler systems in their buildings. FEMA is required to maintain a list of establishments that provide transient lodging with certification in place that they meet the requirements of the Hotel and Motel Fire Safety Act of 1990. This information is used to provide interested parties with a list of compliant hotels and motels, and it certifies that the business can be utilized by Federal Government employees for work-related lodging.

Affected Public: Business or other For-Profit, State, local or Tribal Government.
Estimated Total Annual Burden Hours: 718 hours.

Agency Information Collection Activities: Proposed Collection; Comment Request

AGENCY: Federal Emergency Management Agency, DHS.
ACTION: Notice; 60-day notice and request for comments; Revision of a currently approved collection, OMB Number: 1600–0034, FEMA Form 95–41.

SUMMARY: The Federal Emergency Management Agency, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, invites the general public and other Federal agencies to take this opportunity to comment on a continuing information collection. In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, this notice seeks comments concerning the Emergency Management Institute Residential Course Evaluation Form, which is used to evaluate the quality of course deliveries, facilities, and instructors at the Emergency Management Institute (EMI).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The EMI develops courses and administers resident and nonresident training programs in areas such as natural hazards, technical hazards, instructional methodology, professional development, leadership, exercise design and evaluation, information technology, public information, integrated emergency management, and train-the-trainer. In order to meet current information needs of EMI staff and management, EMI uses course evaluation forms to identify problems with course materials, delivery, facilities, and instructors. The course evaluations will enable them to recommend changes in course materials, student selection criteria, training experience and classroom environment. The Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (Pub. L. 93–288, Section 611, 42 U.S.C. 5196) as amended, authorizes training programs for emergency preparedness for State, local and tribal government personnel.
