

Focus Group Youth Assent Form

INFORMED YOUTH ASSENT

On behalf of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Ogilvy Public Relations Worldwide (Ogilvy PR) is conducting research to better understand how best to communicate with youth on the topic of healthy relationships.

We are asking you to take part in an interview about this topic. The interview will take no more than 90 minutes of your time. If you agree to participate in the interview, here are things you should know:

- Your participation in this interview is completely voluntary. You can leave the interview at any time, for any reason.
- You can choose not to answer any question, at any time.
- Your name and answers to these questions will be kept secure, which means that what you say to us will not be shared with your parents, teachers, friends, or anyone else. Your answers will only be used by Ogilvy PR and CDC. No identifying information, such as your name, will be used.
- The discussion will be audio taped.
- Interviews will take place in a conference room of a focus group facility.
- Staff from CDC and Ogilvy PR will watch the discussion behind a one-way mirror.
- Your participation in this interview should pose no risks to you.
- You will be asked about how you spend your time and how you get information.
- Your participation will help us do a better job communicating with youth on the topic of healthy relationships.
- You will be given $(insert amount appropriate for market) for your time. Note: We often recruit more people than we need. If you were invited to participate, but are not included in the interview because we already have the maximum number of people, you will still be paid.
