

Reducing Waste and Inefficiency through Process Redesign: Lean/ Toyota Production System
(TPS) Implementation

Collection of Documents Guidelines

Dear [INSERT NAME OF CONTACT]:

Thank you for agreeing to participate in the American Institute for Research's project with the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality entitled Reducing Waste and Inefficiency through Process Redesign: Lean/Toyota Production System (TPS) Implementation. This project will involve case studies of Lean/TPS implementation in your organization. As part of this project, we would like to collect existing data from your organization on Lean/TPS implementation.

Specifically, we are looking for the following types of documents:

- Internal reports or memos on Lean/TPS implementation or decisions surrounding Lean/TPS implementation
- Materials promoting the adoption of Lean/TPS in your organization
- Tools used when implementing Lean/TPS (e.g. value stream maps, checklists, guides, etc.)
- Press releases or other news media regarding the use of Lean/TPS in your organization
- Data on the process evaluation for Lean/TPS (satisfaction surveys on Lean/TPS, use of Lean/TPS versus other methods)
- Data on the outcomes or impacts of Lean/TPS (data files, surveys, reports, etc.)
- Materials disseminating information about Lean/TPS and its impacts to others outside of your organization (speeches, presentations, posters, etc.)

We ask that you please submit these documents using one of the methods listed below:

(1) via email to Kristin Carman (kcarman@air.org)

(2) via mail to
