

Instructions:

1. Read the section below entitled: How To Determine Amount of Earnings You Should Report. If you have questions, please telephone (202) 606-0249 Monday through Friday between 9:30 AM and 5:00 PM, Eastern Time.
2. Provide clear and legible information. Do not detach any portion of this form.
3. Fill in, sign, and mail this report in the envelope provided, or mail the report to: U.S. Office of Personnel Management, Retirement Surveys and Students Branch, FERS Annuity Supplement Survey, 1900 E St., NW, Washington, DC 20415-3562 or fax your response to (202) 606-0022.
4. Retain copies of evidence supporting your claimed earnings in the event you are required to furnish documentation of earnings.
5. DO NOT include your annuity payments from OPM. Include, as earnings, all income from wages and self-employment that you actually received plus deferred income you actually earned during 2008.

How To Determine The Amount of Earnings You Should Report

Include as earnings:

- All wages from employment covered by social security.
- All cash pay for agricultural work, domestic work in a private home, service not in the course of your employer's trade or business.
- All pay, cash or non-cash, for work as a home worker for a non-profit organization, no matter the amount. (The social security $100.00 tax test does not apply.)
- All pay for work not covered by social security, if the work is done in the United States, including pay for:
 - Family employment,
 - Work as a student, student nurse, intern, newspaper and magazine vendor,
 - Work for States or foreign governments or instrumentalities, and
 - Work covered by the Railroad Retirement Act.

Regardless of what income is called or who receives it, if it is actually wages for services you performed or net earnings from self-employment you secured, it must be included in applying the earnings test.

Do not include as earnings:

- Pensions or annuities paid as retirement income, including your FERS benefit or any benefits received as a survivor.
- Monies which you earned before entitlement for annuity supplement and/or received for annual leave upon retirement. This includes separation incentives.
- Unemployment compensation.
- Gifts, insurance proceeds, inheritances, scholarships, alimony, capital gains, net business losses, prize winnings.
- Payments-in-kind for domestic service in the employer's private home, for agricultural labor, for work not in the course of the employer's trade or business, or the value of meals and lodging.
- Rentals from real estate which cannot be counted in earnings from self-employment because, for instance, you were not a real estate dealer.
- Interest and dividends not resulting from trade or business.
- Pay for Veteran's training and for jury duty.
- Payments by an employer which are reimbursement specifically for your travel expenses and which are so identified by the employer at the time of payment and/or reimbursement or allowance for moving expenses, if they are not counted as wages for social security purposes.

For more information about the Annuity Supplement, refer to Information for FERS Annuitants, RI 90-8. Information begins in Part B. If you would like a copy of this booklet, call FERS Division at (202) 606-0071 or write: U.S. Office of Personnel Management, FERS Division, Room 4457, Washington, DC 20415. Remember your annuity supplement will stop at the end of the month you reach age 62 or the month before you become entitled to social security benefits, whichever is earlier.

Privacy Act Statement/Public Burden Statement

Information you furnish will be used to determine your eligibility to continue receiving the annuity supplement and the amount of the supplement. Information may be shared and is subject to verification via paper, electronic media, or through use of computer matching programs, with national, state, local, or other benefit paying agencies in order to determine and issue benefits under their programs, to obtain information necessary for continuation of benefits under this program, or to report income for tax purposes. It may also be shared and verified, as noted above, with law enforcement agencies when they are investigating a violation or potential violation of civil or criminal law. Solicitation of this information is authorized by the Federal Employees' Retirement Law (Chapter 84, title 5, U.S. Code). Provision of this information is voluntary; however, failure to supply accurate information may result in suspension of your annuity benefit.
