The Director

August 14, 2008

Dear Federal Employee,

The Office of Personnel Management (OPM) is once again pleased to conduct the Federal Human Capital Survey. This survey offers you the opportunity to express your thoughts, opinions, and ideas regarding your job, your agency, and the Federal workforce as a whole.

Since the first Federal Human Capital Survey in 2002, Federal agencies have taken important steps to become more efficient and improve the quality-of-life for their employees. But we know there is much more to be done. That's why we ask you to once again participate and share your views with us. When you participate in this survey, you are heard.

Over the next two months, approximately 450,000 Federal employees will be given the opportunity to participate. The survey itself takes approximately 30 minutes to complete. Participation is voluntary, and you may use official time to share your views. We urge you to be candid. Your responses will be absolutely confidential. Once you have completed the survey, your answers will be submitted directly to OPM.

OPM will work closely with the Chief Human Capital Officers and each agency to develop and implement improvement plans based on your answers, and will regularly monitor progress.

Thank you once again for sharing your thoughts and concerns with us through your participation in this important survey.

Sincerely,
