Program DHAP-Ike

Instructions for use of the Disaster Rent
Subsidy Contract

This Disaster Rent Subsidy Contract (DRSC) is used to provide rent subsidy payments under the Disaster Housing Assistance Program-Ike (DHAP-Ike). The DHAP-Ike is a federal housing assistance grant program implemented by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). DHAP-Ike will provide temporary rent subsidies to assist eligible families displaced by Hurricanes Ike or Gustav. The following categories of families may be eligible for DHAP-Ike assistance: certain previously HUD-assisted families that cannot return to their HUD-assisted unit by November 1, 2008; DHAP families displaced from their units; and previously unassisted families and individuals referred to DHAP-Ike by FEMA.

The DHAP-Ike is administered by public housing agencies (PHAs) that are currently administering a housing choice voucher program. The DRSC is an agreement between the PHA and the owner of a unit occupied by an assisted family. The DRSC has three parts:

Part A: Contract information (fill-ins)
See section-by-section instructions.

Part B: Body of contract

Part C: Lease addendum

To prepare the DRSC, fill in all contract information in Part A of the contract. Part A must then be executed by the owner.

Use of this form

Use of this DRSC is required by HUD. Modification of the DRSC is not permitted. The DRSC must be word-for-word in the form prescribed by HUD. However, the PHA may add the following: Language that defines when the rent subsidy payment by the PHA is deemed received by the owner (e.g., upon mailing by the PHA or actual receipt by the owner). Such language must be added to Part A of the DRSC.

Part B of DRSC: Body of Contract

1. Purpose

- a. This is a DRSC between the PHA and the owner. The DRSC is entered into in order to provide assistance for the family under the DHAP-Ike.
- b. The DRSC only applies to the family and contract unit specified in Part A of the DRSC.
- c. During the DRSC term, the PHA will pay rent subsidy payments to the owner in accordance with the DRSC.
- d. The family will reside in the contract unit with assistance under the DHAP-Ike. The rent subsidy payments by the PHA assist the tenant to lease the contract unit from the owner for occupancy by the family.

2. Lease of Contract Unit

- a. The owner has leased the contract unit to the tenant for occupancy by the family with assistance under the DHAP-Ike.
- b. The PHA has approved leasing of the unit in accordance with requirements of the DHAP-Ike.
- c. The lease for the contract unit must include word-for-word all provisions of the lease addendum required by HUD (Part C of the DRSC).
- d. The owner certifies that:
 - (1) The owner and the tenant have a written lease for the unit and have executed the DHAP-Ike lease addendum; and
 - (2) The lease is consistent with State and local law.
- e. The owner is responsible for screening the family's behavior or suitability for tenancy. The PHA is not responsible for such screening. The PHA has no liability or responsibility to the owner or other persons for the family's behavior or the family's conduct in tenancy.

3. Maintenance, Utilities, and Other Services

- a. The owner must maintain the contract unit and premises in accordance with the DHAP-Ike requirements.
- b. The Owner must ensure that the contract unit is decent, safe and sanitary. The PHA will conduct an inspection of the unit to ensure it meets the PHA inspection standards.

- c. The owner must provide all owner-supplied utilities needed to ensure the unit is decent, safe and sanitary.
- d. If the owner does not maintain the contract unit in a manner that is decent, safe and sanitary, the PHA may exercise any available remedies. PHA remedies for such breach include recovery of overpayments, suspension of rent subsidy payments, abatement or other reduction of rent subsidy payments, termination of rent subsidy payments, and termination of the DRSC.
- e. The PHA may not exercise such remedies against the owner because of a breach of the standards established by the PHA in accordance with DHAP-Ike requirements for which the family is responsible, and that is not caused by the owner.
- f. The PHA shall not make any rent subsidy payments if the contract unit does not meet the inspection standards required by the PHA, unless the owner corrects the defect within the period specified by the PHA and the PHA verifies the correction.
- g. The PHA may inspect the contract unit and premises at such times as the PHA determines necessary to ensure that the unit meets the PHA inspection standards.
- h. The PHA must notify the owner of any defects shown by the inspection.
- i. The owner must provide all housing services as agreed to in the lease.

4. Term of DRSC

- a. Relation to lease term. The term of the DRSC begins on the effective date as specified in part A of this Contract and terminates on the earlier of the last day of the term of the lease or March 31, 2010.
- b. When DRSC terminates:
 - (1) The DRSC terminates automatically if the lease is terminated by the owner or the tenant.
 - (2) The PHA may terminate DHAP-Ike assistance for the family for any grounds authorized in accordance with requirements under the DHAP-Ike. If the PHA terminates DHAP-

- Ike assistance for the family, the DRSC terminates automatically.
- (3) If the family moves from the contract unit, the DRSC terminates automatically.
 - (4) The PHA may terminate the DRSC if HUD determines, in accordance with DHAP-Ike requirements, that available DHAP-Ike funding is not sufficient to support continued assistance for families in the program.
 - (5) The PHA may terminate the DRSC, after notice to the owner and opportunity to cure, if the PHA determines that the unit does not meet all requirements of the PHA inspection standards, or determines that the owner has otherwise breached the DRSC.
 - (6) When the rent subsidy amount equals $0, the DRSC terminates.

5. Provision and Payment for Utilities and Appliances

The lease and Part A of this contract must specify what utilities and appliances are to be provided or paid by the owner or the tenant. The lease shall be consistent with the DRSC.

6. Security Deposit Assistance

- a. The PHA may pay security deposit assistance to the owner on behalf of the family in accordance with DHAP-Ike requirements.
- b. The security deposit assistance payment amount must be determined in accordance with DHAP-Ike requirements, and may never exceed the security deposit charged by the owner.
- c. The owner may not collect a security deposit in excess of private market practice, as determined by the PHA, or in excess of amounts charged by the owner to unassisted tenants.
- d. If the family moves out of the contract unit, the owner must return the security deposit assistance payment (minus any amounts the owner may retain under the terms of the lease and state and local law) to the PHA.

7. Vacancy Payments

- a. The PHA shall pay a vacancy payment to the owner of up to two months if:
 - (1) the family requests to terminate the tenancy and vacate the unit during the term of the lease in order to end the family's participation in the DHAP-Ike to return home to their pre-disaster housing; and
 - (2) the owner and the tenant mutually agree to terminate the lease.
- b. The vacancy payment amount is determined in accordance with the DHAP-Ike requirements.

8. Lease Rent to Owner: Reasonable Rent

The least rent may not exceed the reasonable rent to owner as determined in accordance with DHAP-Ike requirements. With the exception of subparagraph c, this section does not apply to: 1) FEMA rental assistance families that transition to DHAP-Ike by staying in their previously FEMA assisted units. For all other families, the following applies:

- a. The PHA may not approve a lease until it determines that the lease rent is reasonable.
- b. In order to be reasonable, the lease rent may not exceed the rents charged for comparable unassisted units in the private market and comparable unassisted units in the premises.
- c. During the term of the DRSC, the PHA must also re-determine the reasonable rent before approving any increase in the lease rent.

9. PHA Payment to Owner

- a. When paid
 - (1) During the term of the DRSC, the PHA must make monthly rent subsidy payments to the owner on behalf of the family at the beginning of each month.
 - (2) The PHA must pay rent subsidy payments promptly when due to the owner.
 - (3) Rent subsidy payments shall only be paid to the owner while the family is residing in the contract unit during the term of the DRSC. The PHA shall not pay a rent subsidy payment to the owner for any month after the month when the family moves out. The owner must promptly notify the PHA when the family moves out. The owner retains the full subsidy payment for the month that the family vacates the unit.

b. Owner compliance with DRSC.

Unless the owner has complied with all provisions of the DRSC, the owner does not have a right to receive rent subsidy payments under the DRSC.

c. Amount of PHA payment to owner

- (1) The amount of the monthly PHA rent subsidy payment to the owner must be determined by the PHA in accordance with HUD requirements for a tenancy under the DHAP-Ike.
- (2) The rent subsidy payment for the first month of the DRSC term may be pro-rated for a partial month.
- (3) The amount of the PHA rent subsidy payment is subject to change during the DRSC term in accordance with HUD requirements. The PHA must notify the family and the owner of any changes in the amount of the rent subsidy payment.
- (4) Commencing May 1, 2009, and for each month thereafter, the PHA will reduce the subsidy payment each month by $50 in accordance with DHAP-Ike requirements and such reduction shall incrementally increase each month thereafter until the program concludes as of March 13, 2010, unless the family qualifies for a hardship exception. The DHAP-Ike participating family is responsible, each month beginning May 1, 2009, for the amount of the subsidy reduction.
- (5) Rent subsidy payments may terminate the earlier of 6 months following the effective date of the initial DRSC or July 31, 2009, unless the family qualifies for continued assistance in accordance with DHAP-Ike requirements.

d. Application of payment. The monthly rent subsidy payment shall be credited against the monthly lease rent for the contract unit.

e. Limit of PHA responsibility

- (1) The PHA is only responsible for making rent subsidy payments to the owner in accordance with the DRSC and HUD requirements for a tenancy under the DHAP-Ike.

- (2) The PHA shall not pay any portion of the lease rent in excess of the rent subsidy payment. The PHA shall not pay any other claim by the owner against the family.

f. Overpayment to owner. If the PHA determines that the owner is not entitled to the rent subsidy payment or any part of it, the PHA, in addition to other remedies, may deduct the amount of the overpayment from any amounts due the owner.

10. Owner Certification

During the term of this DRSC, the owner certifies that:

- a. The contract unit and premises are maintained in accordance with the PHA inspection standards, as applicable.
- b. The contract unit is leased to the family. The lease includes the lease addendum (Part C of the DRSC), and is in accordance with the DRSC and DHAP-Ike requirements. The owner has provided the lease to the PHA, including any revisions of the lease.
- c. Except for the lease rent, the owner has not received and will not receive any payments or other consideration (from the family, the PHA, HUD, or any other public or private source) for rental of the contract unit during the DRSC term.
- d. The family does not own or have any interest in the contract unit.
- e. To the best of the owner's knowledge, the members of the family reside in the contract unit, and the family is not residing in any other unit..
- f. The owner (including a principal or other interested party) is not the parent, child, grandparent, grandchild, sister, or brother of any member of the family, unless the PHA has determined (and has notified the owner and the family of such determination) that approving rental of the unit would provide a reasonable accommodation for a family member who is a person with disabilities.

11. Prohibition of Discrimination

In accordance with applicable equal opportunity statutes, Executive Orders, and regulations:

- a. The owner must not discriminate against any person because of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, familial status, or disability in connection with the DRSC.
- b. The owner must cooperate with the PHA and HUD in conducting equal opportunity compliance reviews and complaint investigations in connection with the DRSC.

12. Owner's Breach of DRSC

- a. Any of the following actions by the owner (including a principal or other interested party) is a breach of the DRSC by the owner:
 - (1) If the owner has violated any obligation under the DRSC, including the owner's obligation to maintain the unit in accordance with the PHA inspection standards..
 - (2) If the owner commits fraud, bribery or any other corrupt or criminal act in connection with any Federal housing assistance program.
 - (3) If the owner engages in any drug-related criminal activity or any violent criminal activity.
- b. If the PHA determines that a breach has occurred, the PHA may exercise any of its rights and remedies under the DRSC, or any other available rights and remedies for such breach. The PHA shall notify the owner of such determination, including a brief statement of the reasons for the determination. The notice by the PHA to the owner may require the owner to take corrective action, as verified or determined by the PHA, by a deadline prescribed in the notice.
- c. The PHA's rights and remedies for owner breach of the DRSC include recovery of overpayments, suspension of rent subsidy payments, abatement or other reduction of rent subsidy payments, termination of rent subsidy payments, and termination of the DRSC.
- d. The PHA may seek and obtain additional relief by judicial order or action, including specific performance, other injunctive relief or order for damages.
- e. Even if the family continues to live in the contract unit, the PHA may exercise any rights and remedies for owner breach of the DRSC.

- f. The PHA's exercise or non-exercise of any right or remedy for owner breach of the DRSC is not a waiver of the right to exercise that or any other right or remedy at any time.

13. PHA and HUD Access to Premises and Owner's Records

- a. The owner must provide any information pertinent to the DRSC that the PHA or HUD may reasonably require.
- b. The PHA, HUD and the Comptroller General of the United States shall have full and free access to the contract unit and the premises, and to all accounts and other records of the owner that are relevant to the DRSC, including the right to examine or audit the records and to make copies.
- c. The owner must grant such access to computerized or other electronic records, and to any computers, equipment or facilities containing such records, and must provide any information or assistance needed to access the records.

14. Exclusion of Third Party Rights

- a. The family is not a party to or third party beneficiary of Part B of the DRSC. The family may not enforce any provision of Part B, and may not exercise any right or remedy against the owner or PHA under Part B.
- b. The tenant or the PHA may enforce the lease addendum (Part C of the DRSC) against the owner, and may exercise any right or remedy against the owner under the lease addendum.
- b. The PHA does not assume any responsibility for injury to, or any liability to, any person injured as a result of the owner's action or failure to act in connection with management of the contract unit or the premises or with implementation of the DRSC, or as a result of any other action or failure to act by the owner.
- c. The owner is not the agent of the PHA, and the DRSC does not create or affect any relationship between the PHA and any lender to the owner or any suppliers, employees, contractors or subcontractors used by the owner in connection with management of the contract unit or the premises or with implementation of the DRSC.

15. Assignment of the DRSC

The owner may not assign the DRSC to a new owner without the prior written consent of the PHA.

16. Written Notices Any notice by the PHA or the owner in connection with this contract must be in writing.

17. Entire Agreement: Interpretation

- a. The DRSC contains the entire agreement between the owner and the PHA.
- b. The DRSC shall be interpreted and implemented in accordance with HUD requirements for the DHAP-Ike.

Part C of DRSC: Lease Addendum

1. Disaster Housing Assistance Program - Ike

- a. The owner is leasing the contract unit to the tenant for occupancy by the tenant's family with assistance for a tenancy under the Disaster Housing Assistance Program – Ike (DHAP-Ike) administered by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) on behalf of the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA).
- b. The owner has entered into a Disaster Rent Subsidy Contract (DRSC) with the PHA under DHAP-Ike. Under the DRSC, the PHA will make rent subsidy payments to the owner to assist the tenant in leasing the unit from the owner.

2. Lease

- a. The owner has given the PHA a copy of the lease, including any revisions agreed to by the owner and the tenant. The owner certifies that the terms of the lease are in accordance with all provisions of the DRSC and that the lease includes the lease addendum.
- b. The tenant shall have the right to enforce the lease addendum against the owner. If there is any conflict between the lease addendum and any other provisions of the lease, the language of the lease addendum shall control.

3. Use of Contract Unit

- a. During the lease term, the family will reside in the contract unit with assistance under the DHAP-Ike.
- b. The tenant may not sublease or let the unit.
- c. The tenant may not assign the lease or transfer the unit.

4. Lease Rent

- a. The lease rent may not exceed the amount approved by the PHA in accordance with DHAP-Ike requirements.
- b. Changes in the lease rent shall be determined by the provisions of the lease, DRSC and DHAP-Ike requirements.

- c. The lease rent may not exceed the reasonable rent for the unit as determined by the PHA in accordance with DHAP-Ike requirements except the PHA does not determine if the rent for the unit is reasonable in the case of a pre-assigned FEMA rental assistance family that is transitioning to DHAP-Ike by staying in-place.

5. Family Payment to Owner

- a. The family is responsible for paying the owner any portion of the lease rent that is not covered by the PHA rent subsidy payment.
- b. Each month, the PHA will make a rent subsidy payment to the owner on behalf of the family in accordance with the DRSC. The amount of the monthly rent subsidy payment will be determined by the PHA in accordance with DHAP-Ike requirements.
- c. Commencing May 1, 2009 and for each month thereafter, the PHA will reduce the subsidy payment each month by $50 and such reduction shall incrementally increase each month thereafter until the program ends with the March, 2010 rent subsidy payment, unless the family qualifies, in accordance with DHAP-Ike requirements, for the hardship exception. The DHAP-Ike participating family is responsible, each month beginning May 1, 2009, for the amount of the subsidy reduction.
- d. The rent subsidy payment shall be credited against the monthly lease rent for the contract unit.
- e. The tenant is not responsible for paying the portion of lease rent covered by the rent subsidy payment under the DRSC between the owner and the PHA. A PHA failure to pay the rent subsidy payment to the owner is not a violation of the lease. The owner may not terminate the tenancy for nonpayment of the PHA rent subsidy payment.
- f. The owner may not charge or accept, from the family or from any other source, any payment for rent of the unit in addition to the lease rent. Lease rent includes all housing services, maintenance, utilities and appliances to be provided and paid by the owner in accordance with the lease.

- g. The owner must immediately return to the tenant any excess rent payment paid by the tenant.

6. Other Fees and Charges

The owner may not charge the tenant extra amounts for items customarily included in lease rent in the locality, or provided at no additional cost to unsubsidized tenants in the premises.

7. Maintenance, Utilities, and Other Services

a. Maintenance

- (1) The owner must maintain the unit and premises in a manner that ensures they are decent, safe and sanitary, in accordance with DHAP-Ike requirements. Maintenance and replacement (including redecoration) must be in accordance with the standard practice for the building concerned as established by the owner.

b. Utilities and appliances

- (1) The owner must provide all owner-supplied utilities needed to comply with the DHAP-Ike operating requirements.
- (2) The owner is not responsible for a breach of the PHA inspection standards in accordance with DHAP-Ike requirements, caused by the tenant's failure to:
 - (a) Pay for any utilities that are to be paid by the tenant.
 - (b) Provide and maintain any appliances that are to be provided by the tenant.

c. Family Damage. The owner is not responsible for a breach of the PHA inspection standards because of damages beyond normal wear and tear caused by any member of the household or by a guest.

d. Housing Services. The owner must provide all housing services as agreed to in the lease.

8. Termination of Tenancy: Owner Requirements.

The owner may only terminate the tenancy in accordance with the lease, state and local law and requirements under DHAP-Ike.

9. Lease: Relation to DRSC

If the DRSC terminates for any reason, the lease is not affected by the termination of the DRSC or rent subsidy payments. However, upon termination of the DRSC, this lease addendum shall be void.

10. PHA Termination of Assistance

The PHA may terminate program assistance for the family, for any grounds authorized in accordance with DHAP-Ike requirements. If the PHA decides to terminate program assistance for the family, the DRSC terminates and no additional rent subsidy payments will be made to the owner.

11. Family Move Out

The tenant must notify the PHA and the owner before the family moves out of the unit.

12. Security Deposit

- a. The owner may collect a security deposit for the rental of the unit. The owner may not collect a security deposit in excess of private market practice, or in excess of amounts charged by the owner to unassisted tenants.
- b. The PHA may make a security deposit assistance payment on behalf of the family in accordance with DHAP-Ike requirements. If the security deposit charged by the owner exceeds the security deposit assistance payment, the owner may collect the remaining amount from the tenant.
- c. When the family moves out of the contract unit the owner may use the security deposit assistance payment in accordance with state and local law.
- d. The owner must give the tenant and PHA a list of all items charged against the security deposit, and the amount of each item. Any amount charged by the owner must first be deducted from the tenant's portion, if any, of the security deposit. Any unused portion of the security deposit paid by the family, must be returned to the family. Any unused portion of the security deposit assistance payment made by the PHA must be returned to the PHA.
- e. If the security deposit (including the security deposit assistance payment) is not sufficient to cover amounts the tenant owes under the lease, the owner may collect the balance from the tenant.

13. Prohibition of Discrimination

In accordance with applicable equal opportunity statutes, Executive Orders, and regulations, the owner must not discriminate against any person because of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, familial status or disability in connection with the lease.

14. Conflict with Other Provisions of Lease

- a. The terms of the lease addendum are prescribed by HUD in accordance with HUD and FEMA requirements, as a condition for Federal assistance to the tenant and tenant's family under the DHAP-Ike.
- b. In case of any conflict between the provisions of the lease addendum as required by HUD, and any other provisions of the lease or any other agreement between the owner and the tenant, the requirements of this lease addendum shall control.

15. Changes in Lease or Rent

- a. The tenant and the owner may not make any change in the lease addendum. However, if the tenant and the owner agree to any other changes in the lease, such changes must be in writing, and the owner must immediately give the PHA a copy of such changes. The lease, including any changes, must be in accordance with the requirements of the lease addendum.
- b. In the following cases, rent subsidy payments shall not be continued unless the PHA has approved a new tenancy in accordance with program requirements and has executed a new DRSC with the owner:
 - (1) If there are any changes in lease requirements governing tenant or owner responsibilities for utilities or appliances;
 - (2) If the family moves to a new unit, even if the unit is in the same building or complex.
- c. PHA approval of the tenancy, and execution of a new DRSC, are not required for agreed changes in the lease other than as specified in paragraph b.

- d. The owner must notify the PHA and the tenant of any changes in the amount of the lease rent at least thirty days before any such changes go into effect, and the amount of the lease rent following any such agreed change must be in accordance with DHAP-Ike requirements.

16. Notices

Any notice under the lease by the tenant to the owner or by the owner to the tenant must be in writing.

17. Definitions

Contract unit. The housing unit rented by the tenant with assistance under the program.
