Jurisdiction:

Date of Completion:

Section A – Program Configuration Changes

Answer each question in this section with each quarterly request for emergency funds.

1. Since October 1, 2006, has the jurisdiction made any changes in the groups of families receiving assistance in its TANF/SSP-MOE program that are the result of changes to a solely State-funded (SSF) program – either by starting or expanding a SSF, or by ending or scaling back a SSF?

yes  no

If yes, have you completed Section B on a prior submission to account fully for these changes?

yes  no

2. Since October 1, 2006, has the jurisdiction converted any part of a program that provides non-assistance benefits (including non-recurrent short-term benefits) to a basic assistance program or converted any part of a basic assistance program to one that provides non-assistance benefits?

yes  no

If yes, have you completed Section B on a prior submission to account for these changes?

yes  no

3. Since October 1, 2006, has the jurisdiction converted either a subsidized employment or a non-recurrent short term benefit program that operated outside of TANF/SSP-MOE to one that is within TANF?

yes  no

If yes, have you completed Section B on a prior submission to account for these changes?

yes  no

4. Since October 1, 2006, are expenditures in any of your Emergency Fund categories subject to uneven claiming across quarters? For example, do you pay a contractor in a quarter to provide a service or benefit throughout the year but do not pay that contractor in the same quarter each year?

yes  no

If yes, have you completed Section B on a prior submission to account for these changes?

yes  no

5. Since October 1, 2006, has the jurisdiction made any other changes that resulted in a change of funding between a TANF/SSP-MOE program and a SSF program or resulted in a funding change across any of the three categories?

yes  no

If yes, have you completed Section B on a prior submission to account for these changes?

yes  no
