PROPOSED VERSION

Part 3. Original Signature

I understand that U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) will issue a refund of the Premium Processing fee to the addressee above in Part 1 of this request if USCIS does not take an action on the relating premium processing eligible case within 15 calendar days after this request has been physically received at the appropriate USCIS office. Case actions include a referral for investigation of suspected fraud or misrepresentation, or:

The issuance of:

- 1. An approval notice;
- 2. A request for evidence; or
- 3. A notice of intent to deny.

I certify, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that the information provided with this request is all true and correct. USCIS may obtain any information from the records of the related case that USCIS needs to determine eligibility for the benefit being sought.

Form I-907 Instructions, Page 1, Section: When Should I Use Form I-907?, 3rd paragraph	Current Version Only the petitioner or applicant who filed the corresponding petition or application (e.g. Form I-129), or the attorney or accredited representative of the petitioner or applicant, may request Premium Processing Service. If the attorney or accredited representative makes the request, a properly completed Notice of Appearance (Form G-28) must accompany the request, even if the attorney or accredited representative has already filed a Form G-28 in the case.	Proposed Version Only the petitioner or applicant who filed the corresponding petition or application (e.g., Form I-129, Petition for Alien Worker), or the attorney or accredited representative of the petitioner or applicant, may request Premium Processing Service. If the attorney or accredited representative makes the request, a properly completed Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Representative, must accompany the request, unless the attorney or accredited representative has already filed Form G-28 in the case. Form G-28 filed with Form I-907 by a new attorney or accredited representative will replace Form G-28 filed with the underlying petition or application, and the new attorney will be recognized as the attorney of record in the case.
