Additional comments

The review and continuing oversight performed by the CDC IRB will meet the human subjects protection requirements of the HHS regulations (and FDA regulations, if applicable) for the protection of human subjects, as well as the requirements of the OHRP-approved FWA at Academy for Educational Development. The CDC IRB must be designated on the FWA at Academy for Educational Development. The CDC IRB will follow written procedures for reporting its findings and actions to appropriate officials at Academy for Educational Development. CDC will make relevant minutes of IRB meetings and related records available to Academy for Educational Development upon request. Academy for Educational Development remains responsible for ensuring compliance with the IRB's determinations and with the terms of its FWA. This document must be kept on file at both institutions and provided to OHRP upon request.
