

VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION PROVIDER CLAIM

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT: The authority to access information from vocational rehabilitation providers on titles II and XVI beneficiaries is contained in section 205(a) and 1633(a) of the Social Security Act. Completion of this form is voluntary, however, no payment can be made unless required claims information is made available to the Social Security Administration using this form or another mutually agreed upon method for submitting a claim. SSA will use the information provided on this form to make claim determinations.

PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT STATEMENT: This information collection meets the clearance requirements of 44 U.S.C. § 3507, as amended by section 2 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. You are not required to answer these questions unless we display a valid Office of Management and Budget control number. We estimate that it will take you about 23 minutes to read the instructions, gather the necessary facts, and answer the questions.

See revised Paperwork Reduction Act and Privacy Act Statements below.

Privacy Act Statement

Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 205(a) and 1633(a) of the Social Security Act authorize us to collect this information. The information you provide us on this form will be used to make claim determinations.

Completion of this form is voluntary, however, we cannot make a payment unless you make the required claims information available to us using this form or another mutually agreed upon method for submitting a claim.

We rarely use this information you supply for any purpose other than for deciding on a claim. However, we may use it for the administration and integrity of Social Security programs. We may also disclose information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, which include but are not limited to the following:

1. To enable a third party or an agency to assist Social Security in establishing rights to Social Security benefits and/or coverage;
2. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from Social Security records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office and Department of Veterans' Affairs);
3. To make determinations for eligibility in similar health and income maintenance programs at the Federal, State, and local level; and
4. To audit or investigate activities necessary to assure the integrity of Social Security programs.

We may also use the information you provide in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State, or local government agencies. Information from these matching programs can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federally funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of payments or delinquent debts under these programs.

Additional information regarding this form, routine uses of information, and our programs and systems, is available on-line at www.socialsecurity.gov or at your local Social Security office.
