May I speak with (RESTORE CONTACT NAME)?

Hello. The Small Business Administration program has hired my company, [Data Collection Company], to call on their behalf to conduct a brief survey about their low-interest disaster assistance loan program. The purpose of this survey is to provide SBA with feedback from their customers to assist them in improving customer service. Your answers are voluntary and we will not ask any questions about confidential information. If at any time you do not feel comfortable answering a question, please say so. Your responses will be held completely confidential, and you will never be identified by name. This interview is authorized by the Office of Management and Budget Control No. 1090-0007. This interview will take approximately 10 – 15 minutes.

ACSI Benchmark Questions

Satisfaction includes many things. Let’s move on and talk about your overall satisfaction with the SBA’s Disaster Assistance Program loan application process.

Q37. First, please consider all your experiences to date with the SBA loan application process. Using a 10-point scale on which “1” means “very dissatisfied” and “10” means “very satisfied,” how satisfied are you with the SBA loan application process?

Q38. Considering all your expectations, to what extent has the SBA’s loan application process fallen short of or exceeded your expectations? Using a 10-point scale on which “1” now means “falls short of your expectations” and “10” means “exceeds your expectations,” to what extent has the SBA loan application process fallen short of or exceeded your expectations?

Q39. Forget the SBA loan application process for a moment. Now, I want you to imagine an ideal process that offers low-interest loans for disaster recovery assistance. (PAUSE) How well do you think the SBA loan application process compares with that ideal? Please use a 10-point scale on which “1” means “not very close to the ideal” and “10” means “very close to the ideal.”

Complaints

Next, I want to think about any communication you may have had over the past year regarding complaints about your experience with the SBA’s Disaster Assistance Program loan application process.

Q40. Have you complained to the SBA about the loan application process within the past year?

- 1 Yes
 - 2 No (skip to next section Q43)

Q41. How well, or poorly, was your most recent complaint handled? Using a 10-point scale on which “1” means “handled very poorly” and “10” means “handled very well,” how would you rate the handling of your complaint?

Q42. How difficult or easy was it to make your most recent complaint? Using a 10-point scale on which “1” means “very difficult” and “10” means “very easy,” how difficult or easy was it to make a complaint?

Confidence

Q43. How confident are you that the SBA’s Disaster Assistance Program will do a good job in the future providing low-interest disaster recovery loans? Using a 10-point scale on which “1” means “not at all confident” and “10” means “very confident,” how confident are you that SBA will do a good job in the future?

Q44. If asked, how willing would you be to say positive things about the job the SBA’s Disaster Assistance Program is doing in issuing low-interest loans? Using a 10-point scale on which “1” means “not at all willing” and “10” means “very willing,” how willing would you be to say positive things about the SBA?
