5. Provide/Output CP_CODE for every outlet identified.

The first 1 or 2 digits of CP_CODE refers to the ORDER of the POPSCAT - that is, the outlets identified for the first POPSCAT in the PSU (regardless of whether it is in sample) will begin with "1" and the outlets identified for the tenth POPSCAT in the PSU will begin with a "10."• (The maximum value for the first 2 digits is "16".)

If a POPSCAT is in sample, but no outlets are identified for that POPSCAT, the order-identifier for that POPSCAT will not be used - that is, if no outlets are identified for the third POPSCAT in sample, no CP_CODE will begin with the number "3."

If a POPSCAT in the PSU is not in sample for the case, the order-identifier for that POPSCAT will not be used.  For example, if the random number for a case excludes the fourth POPSCAT, no CP_CODE will begin with the number "4."•

The last digit of CP_CODE numbers the outlet as it is identified - that is, the first outlet identified for a particular POPSCAT gets a "1" and the third outlet identified for that SAME POPSCAT gets a "3." (The maximum value for the last digit is "5".)

Question Text: Why do we ask race and ethnicity questions?<o:p> <o:p>In October 1997, the Office of Management and Budget, or OMB, issued Standards for Maintaining, Collecting, and Presenting Federal Data on Race and Ethnicity. These guidelines state that race and ethnicity are separate and distinct concepts and should be collected in different questions. The standards are available on the Internet at www.whitehouse.gov/omb/fedreg/1997standards.html. <o:p>All federal agencies, including the Census Bureau, which collect and report data on race and ethnicity, must follow these standards. <o:p>The Bureau of Labor Statistics uses the data from the TPOPS survey to produce a sample of retail stores and service establishments that is then used to price goods and services for the Consumer Price Index. The race and ethnicity questions are asked to ensure that the survey shows no bias regarding any ethnic group and that the shopping habits of the whole population are represented.

Question Text: Outlet Type

The key to selecting the correct outlet type at screen CP_OLTYP is to determine
HOW you entered into the ""contract"", either express or implied, to purchase the item or service.

SELECT (1) PERSONAL VISIT, if you made a personal visit to the store/business/outlet and either paid for the item at the store or made arrangements there to finance the purchase.

SELECT (2) MAIL ORDER, if you filled out a mail-order form and mailed the form to the vendor.

SELECT (3) TELEPHONE ORDER, if you ordered the item over the telephone by calling the vendor, or by sending the request order by fax.
This includes food items that are delivered to the home, if the order was placed over the telephone (for example Pizza Delivery).

SELECT (4) INTERNET, if you filled out a form on an Internet web site or company home page and submitted the order electronically over the Internet or via e mail.
(This is true, even if the company is located outside the U.S.)

SELECT (5) PRIVATE INDIVIDUAL, if the outlet name is a person's name (e.g., Joe Smith) and is not connected to a business. (This is true, even in cases where the contract was made by personal visit or over the telephone.) Precode (5) Private Individual has priority and should be selected if the outlet name is a person and not a business.

One exception:  If the outlet name is a doctor or medical physician's name (e.g., Dr. Joe Smith), then Precode (5) should not be selected. Assume doctors have offices or make house calls and are ""normally"" in business, so Precode (1) Personal Visit or Precode (3) Telephone should be selected.

SELECT (6) PUBLIC SALE, if the outlet name given by the respondent contains the phrase
"public sale", "garage sale", "yard sale", "estate sale", "swap meet", or
"auction". (This is true, even in cases where the contract was made by personal visit.)
Precode (6) Public Sale has priority and should be selected if you know know the purchase was made at a public sale.
If you are not sure if the purchase was made at a public sale (and the outlet name does not give an indication), Precode (1) Personal Visit should be selected.

SELECT (7) LOCATION OUTSIDE OF THE U.S., if the outlet is located outside the U.S., unless it is an Internet outlet.  Precode (7) Location Outside the U.S. has priority and should be selected if the outlet is located outside the United States.
(This is true, even in cases where the contract was made by personal visit, mail order, or telephone.)
