

The FTC has received pre-test results and analyzed them. Respondents indicated the questions were clear overall, but there was some confusion regarding what had been option 4. Because of its ambiguity, option 4 has been removed from the revised questionnaire. The remaining three choices will give the FTC sufficient insight to assist with its review of the Green Guides.