

OFFICE OF LANGUAGE SERVICES CONTRACTOR APPLICATION FORM

Interpreter • English Language Officer • Translator

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS AND CHECKLIST

The following items need to be submitted together in order to be considered for contract freelance work with the U.S. Department of State, Office of Language Services:

Application Form

- The entire first page must be completed. On the second page, only complete those sections of the application for which you are interested in applying. You do not need to complete all three sections if you are not interested in working in all three.

Résumé with References

- Please submit a copy of your résumé and at least three professional references with telephone numbers, preferably who are familiar with your linguistic work. Your résumé should highlight your translating and/or interpreting work.

Translation Samples (only if applying for written translation work)

- If applying for written translation, you MUST submit a short translation sample (150-200 words) using the third page of the application form.
- If applying for multiple language combinations, you may submit multiple samples using the translation sample form included in this application. DO NOT SUBMIT MORE THAN ONE SAMPLE PER LANGUAGE COMBINATION.
- The Office of Language Services does not provide documents for you to translate in order to submit samples to our office. Please select something you have translated previously. If you do not have any of your prior work at your disposal, please select something and translate it. If possible, your sample translation should deal with current events, politics, government, law, or business. Avoid translations of patents, biomedical texts, literature, and highly technical prose.
- If not applying for written translation work, it is not necessary to submit the translation sample page of this application.
