

SUPPORTING STATEMENT
(Form 1099-CAP)

. CIRCUMSTANCES NECESSITATING COLLECTION OF INFORMATION

Regulations section 1.6043-4T requires large companies to report corporate inversion transactions that subject shareholders to taxes. The regulations require information reporting under section 6043(c) on Form 1099-CAP by a corporation if it is acquired, re-capitalized, or undergoes another type of substantial change in capital structure. The regulations mandate the reporting. Transactions involving the acquisition of control within an affiliated group or involving stock valued less than $100 million will not be covered. The regulations are effective for acquisitions of control and substantial changes of capital structure taking place after December 31, 2001.

. USE OF DATA

Taxpayers (shareholders) will use the information to determine any taxable gain incurred from cash received and the fair market value of stock or other property received. The gain, if any, is reported on the taxpayers' income tax return. The data will also be used by the IRS for compliance purposes.
