

FEE DISCLOSURE FORM AND COMPENSATION AGREEMENT For Agent Services In Connection With an SBA 504 Loan

Purpose of this form: Section 13 of the Small Business Act (15 USC §642) requires that a small business SBA loan applicant (“Applicant”) identify the names of persons engaged by or on behalf of the Applicant for the purpose of expediting the application and the fees paid or to be paid to any such person. 13 C.F.R., Part 103.5 requires any Agent to execute and provide to SBA a compensation agreement (“Agreement”) showing the compensation charged for services rendered or to be rendered to the Applicant or lender in any matter involving SBA assistance. “Agent” includes a loan packager, referral agent, broker, accountant, attorney, consultant or any other party that receives compensation from representing an Applicant in connection with an SBA loan. (13 C.F.R. Part 103 and sections 120.883, 120.926, 120.935, 120.971, and 120.972 contain the rules governing compensation of Agents or Certified Development Companies (“CDC”) in connection with packaging and processing a 504 loan. These rules may be found at www.sba.gov/library.)

A CDC is limited by regulation to charging an Applicant up to 1.5 percent of the net debenture to cover the CDC’s costs associated with all activities required to process the 504 loan request including screening and packaging the loan. Two thirds of this fee is considered earned and may be collected by the CDC when the 504 loan authorization for the debenture is issued by SBA. At the time of application, the CDC may require a deposit of the 1.5 percent fee from the Applicant. The deposit may be up to $2,500 or 1 percent of the net debenture amount, whichever is less. The deposit must be refunded if the application is denied. If the Applicant withdraws its application, the CDC may deduct from the deposit reasonable costs incurred in packaging and processing the application. The 1.5 percent fee (and any deposit towards the fee) does not have to be reported as part of this Agreement.

A CDC may receive a reasonable referral fee from the Third Party Lender if the CDC secured the Third Party Lender for the Applicant under a written contract between the CDC and the Third Party Lender. (A Third Party Lender provides the Third Party Loan, which is a loan is a part of the 504 project financing but is not guaranteed by SBA.) If a CDC charges a referral fee, the CDC is construed as a Referral Agent for purposes of this Agreement. Both the CDC and the Third Party Lender are prohibited from charging this referral fee to the Applicant.

If an Applicant chooses to employ an Agent to represent the Applicant, compensation an Agent charges to and that is paid by the Applicant must bear a necessary and reasonable relationship to the services actually performed. Compensation cannot be contingent on loan approval. In addition, compensation must not include any expenses which are deemed by SBA to be unnecessary in connection with the loan application or are prohibited by SBA rules. If the compensation is not permitted by SBA rules, the Agent must cancel the compensation, or refund to the applicant any portion the Applicant already paid. In cases where SBA deems the amount of compensation unreasonable, the Agent must reduce the compensation charged to an amount SBA deems reasonable, refund to the Applicant any sum in excess of the amount SBA deems reasonable, and refrain from charging or collecting directly or indirectly from the Applicant an amount in excess of the amount SBA deems reasonable. Violation by an Agent of any of these rules may result in SBA’s suspension or revocation of the Agent’s privilege of conducting business with SBA.

The following are not considered Agents for purposes of this Agreement and, therefore, are not required to complete this Agreement: 1) Applicant’s accountant for the preparation of financial statements required by the Applicant in the normal course of business and not related to the loan application; 2) a state-certified or state-licensed appraiser employed by the Lender to appraise collateral in connection with the SBA loan; 3) a lender service provider operating under an SBA-approved lender service provider agreement; 4) an individual who performs a business valuation; 5) an environmental professional employed by the lender to conduct an environmental assessment of the collateral in connection with the SBA loan; and 6) any attorney in connection with the 7(a) loan closing.
