4. TAX LIABILITY NOTICE (Carefully read before completing Item 5.)

Upon the reissuance of savings bonds and/or notes to a trust, you must include in your gross income any accumulated interest on the bonds, including any tax-deferred increment noted on Series HH/H bonds, if you have not already reported it, unless, under the grantor trust provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, you are treated as the owner of the portion of the trust represented by any tax-deferred accumulated interest on the reissued bonds. If you are treated as the owner of that portion, the accumulated interest continues to be your income rather than that of the trust, and therefore, you may continue to defer reporting the interest earned each year. You must include the total accumulated interest in your gross income when the bonds are disposed of or finally mature, whichever is earlier. These rules apply when bonds being reissued are Series I bonds, Series EE or E bonds, or Series HH or H bonds that you have received in exchange for Series EE or E bonds or savings notes if you are the owner of the portion of the trust represented by the tax-deferred accumulated interest.

Generally, you will be treated as the owner of a trust that you have created to the extent that you retain certain powers over or interests in the trust. For example, you will be treated as the owner of the portion of the trust represented by any tax-deferred accumulated interest on the reissued bonds under the following circumstances:

- (1) You will be treated as the owner of a trust to the extent that you have an unconditional power to revest in yourself title to the trust assets. Thus, if you can, at your discretion, revoke all or part of the trust so that the bonds will be returned to you, you will be treated as the owner of the portion of the trust represented by any accumulated interest on the bonds.
- (2) If the trust instrument provides that the reissued bonds or the proceeds from the redemption or disposition of those bonds must be distributed to you or your spouse, or held or accumulated for future distribution to you or your spouse, you will be treated as the owner of the portion of the trust represented by any accumulated interest on the bonds. You will be treated as the owner in this circumstance irrespective of the terms of the trust.
- (3) You will be treated as the owner of a trust to the extent that you retain a power to control the beneficial enjoyment of property transferred to a trust. Thus, if you retain, under the terms of the trust instrument, an immediately exercisable power to determine, in your sole discretion, who will receive the bonds or the proceeds from the redemption or disposition of the bonds, then you will be treated as the owner of the portion of the trust represented by any accumulated interest.

The examples outlined above are illustrative only and they are not intended to cover all possible situations in which you could be treated as the owner of a trust or a portion of a trust. Furthermore, events can occur, such as the renunciation of a retained power or interest, which would cause you to cease being treated as the owner of a trust. If you are not sure whether you will be treated as the owner of a trust, you may request a letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service. A request for a letter ruling should be sent to: Internal Revenue Service, ATTN: CC: DOM: CORP: T, PO Box 7604, Ben Franklin Station, Washington, DC 20044.

If you have any questions concerning the information to be submitted in connection with a letter ruling request, you may call (202) 622-7560.

5. TAX LIABILITY STATEMENT (This section must be completed.)

You must check box a. or b. (See "TAX LIABILITY NOTICE" above.)

"Interest" includes tax-deferred interest represented by tax legends on HH/H bonds as well as interest earned on EE/E or I bonds from the issue date until the date of reissue.

This statement will also apply to all future transactions requested by the same owner(s) or person(s) entitled to the same trust.

You must mark box a. or b. to indicate if you are the owner of the portion of the trust represented.

For Federal income tax purposes:

- a. I certify that I will be treated as owner of the portion of the trust represented by the tax-deferred accumulated interest on the bonds being reissued. If this box is marked, the interest will be tax-deferred (interest will not be reported to the Internal Revenue Service as a result of the reissue).
- b. I certify that I will not be treated as owner of the portion of the trust represented by the tax-deferred accumulated interest on the bonds being reissued. If this box is marked, interest will be reported to the Internal Revenue Service for the taxable year in which the bonds were reissued to the trust. A 1099-INT will be generated for the social security number specified.

If b. is checked and the bonds are in coownership form (e.g., "John Smith OR Jane Smith"), complete the following:

(Name of principal coowner)

(Social Security Number)

is the principal coowner of any bonds registered in coownership form submitted. He/She is responsible for any tax liability resulting from the reissue transaction requested. (A principal coowner is a coowner who (1) purchased the bonds with his/her own funds or (2) received them as a gift, inheritance or legacy, or as a result of judicial proceedings, and has them reissued in coownership form, provided he/she has received no contribution in money or money's worth for designating the other person as coowner on the bonds.

The interest will be reported to the Internal Revenue Service, and a 1099-INT will be generated for the social security number specified above.

- If a grantor (creator) of the trust who signs this form has been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that he or she is subject to backup withholding or if the IRS has notified appropriate persons that the trust estate is subject to backup withholding, the applicable statements immediately above the signature line to the effect that the owner, principal coowner, or trust is not subject to backup withholding should be crossed out. If the trust was created by some person other than the owner or coowners, the trustee must complete an IRS Form W-9 and submit it with this request for reissue. Forms SF 1199A are available at financial institutions in the United States. PD F 5396 is available for download on the Internet using the “forms” link at the address www.treasurydirect.gov.
