

Prize Idea Survey

Title of Challenge (50 characters)

What is the objective of the prize challenge? What innovation or capability would competitors demonstrate? (1000 characters)

What milestone or performance measurement would determine the winner or winners in this challenge? (500 characters)

What would be a suitable cash prize amount or non-monetary reward for the winner or winners? (200 characters)

What area of NASA's work does this challenge address? (check any that apply)

- new aircraft technology
- air transportation and safety
- launch vehicles
- spacecraft and space vehicles
- planetary science and exploration
- space habitation and health
- working in space, on the moon or on the planets
- space resources and energy
- space station research and operations
- space flight operations and safety
- Earth science and observation
- solar science and astrophysics
- other _____ (50 characters)

Does this challenge address any national or global needs beyond NASA's aerospace work? (check any that apply)

- health
- food and water supplies
- education
- energy
- environment and climate
- transportation
- international cooperation
- other _____ (50 characters)

Would this challenge lead to potential new opportunities in any of these areas? (check any that apply)

- commercial aviation
- private aviation
- commercial spaceflight
- new products from space
- new business in space

Optional (this information will not be posted)

Your Name

Your Affiliation (company, university, organization)

Your Zip Code

Your occupation