Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 25 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. This agency may not collect this information if it does not display a currently valid OMB control number.

This information collection involves an expanded information requirement for lenders that originate and service Section 203(k) mortgages. The purpose is to help mitigate program abuses. The expanded information focuses on the loan origination process and requires increased documentation and strengthened procedures. Periodic reporting of the information is not required. The information also includes information that was voluntarily accepted by the 203(k) lender.

information provides a more comprehensive basis for evaluating lender underwriting practices and thereby improves risk management of the 203(k) loans required under Section 203(k) of the National Housing Act (12 U.S.C. 1703). No assurance of confidentiality is provided.
