STATEMENTS REQUIRED BY LAW AND EXECUTIVE ORDER

Federal executive agencies, including the Small Business Administration (SBA), are required to withhold or limit assistance, to impose special conditions on approved guarantee agreements, to provide special notices to applicants and to require special reports and data from applicants in order to comply with legislation passed by the Congress and Executive Orders issued by the President and by the provisions of various inter-agency agreements. SBA has issued regulations and procedures that implement these laws and executive orders, and they are contained in Parts 113 and 117, Title 13, Code of Federal Regulations Chapter I, or Standard Operating Procedures.

Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552)

This law provides, with some exceptions, that SBA must supply information reflected in agency files and records to a person requesting it. Information about approved SBG guarantee agreements that will be automatically released includes, among other things, statistics on the SBG programs (individuals are not identified in the statistics) and other information such as the names of small businesses (and their officers, directors, stockholders or partners), the amount of the SBG guarantee agreement. Proprietary data on an applicant would not routinely be made available to third parties. All requests under this Act are to be addressed to the nearest SBA office and be identified as a Freedom of Information request.

Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. 552a)

A person can request to see or get copies of any personal information that SBA has in his or her file when that file is retrievable by individual identifiers such as name or social security numbers. Requests for information about another party may be denied unless SBA has the written permission of the individual to release the information to the requestor or unless the information is subject to disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act.

Under the provisions of the Privacy Act, you are not required to provide your social security number. Failure to provide your social security number may not affect any right, benefit or privilege to which you are entitled. Disclosures of name and other personal identifiers are, however, required for a benefit, as SBA requires an individual seeking assistance from SBA to provide it with sufficient information for it to make a character determination. In determining whether an individual is of good character, SBA considers the person's integrity, candor, and disposition toward criminal actions. Before any bonds may be guaranteed by SBA pursuant to Section 411 of the Small Business Investment Act (the Act), 15 USC 694b, SBA is required to have a reasonable expectation that the applicant will perform the contract for which the bond is sought, and that the terms of and conditions of the bond are reasonable in the light of the risks involved and the extent of the surety's participation. Further, for all forms of assistance, SBA is authorized to make all investigations necessary to ensure that a person has not engaged in acts that violate or will violate the Small Business Investment Act, 15 USC Section 687(b)(a). For these purposes, you are asked to voluntarily provide your social security number to assist SBA in making a character determination and to distinguish you from other individuals with the same or similar name or other personal identifier.

The Privacy Act authorizes SBA to make certain "routine uses" of information protected by that Act. One such routine use for SBA's system of records is that when this information indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or administrative in nature, SBA may refer it to the appropriate agency, whether Federal, State, local, foreign, charged with responsibility for or otherwise involved in investigation, prosecution, enforcement or prevention of such violations. (See, 74FR 14890 (April 1, 2009) (and as amended from time to time) for additional background and other routine uses.)

Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978 (12 U.S.C. 3401)

This is notice to you as required by the Right to Financial Privacy of 1978, of SBA's access rights to financial records held by financial institutions that are or have been doing business with you or your business. The law provides that SBA shall have a right of access to your financial records in connection with its consideration or administration of assistance to you in the form of a Government SBG guarantee agreement.

The law also authorizes SBA to transfer to another Government authority any financial records included in an application for a SBG guarantee, or concerning an approved SBG guarantee, as necessary to process or service the guarantee. No other transfer of your financial records to another Government authority will be permitted by SBA except as required or permitted by law.

Flood Disaster Protection Act (42 U.S.C. 4011)

Regulations have been issued by the Federal Insurance Administration (FIA) and by SBA implementing this Act and its amendments. These regulations prohibit SBA from making certain loans in an FIA designated floodplain unless Federal flood insurance is purchased as a condition of the loan. Failure to maintain the required level of flood insurance makes the applicant ineligible for any future financial assistance from SBA under any program, including disaster assistance.

Occupational Safety and Health Act (15 U.S.C. 651 et seq.)

This legislation authorizes the Occupational Safety and Health Administration in the Department of Labor to require businesses to modify facilities and procedure to protect employees or pay penalty fees. In some instance the business can be forced to cease operations or be prevented from starting operations in a new facility. Therefore, in some instances SBA may require additional information from an applicant to determine whether the business will be in compliance with OSHA regulations and allowed to operate its facility after the SBG guarantee agreement is approved. Signing this form as an applicant is a certificate that the OSA requirements that apply to the applicant’s business have been determined and the applicant to the best of its knowledge is in compliance.

Civil Rights Legislation

All businesses receiving SBA assistance must agree not to discriminate in any business practice, including employment practices and services to the public, on the basis of categories cited in 13 C.F.R., Parts 113, and 117 of SBA Regulations. This includes making their goods and services available to handicapped clients or customers. All businesses receiving assistance will be required to display the “Equal Employment Opportunity Poster” prescribed by SBA.

Debt Collection Act of 1982 Deficit Reduction of 1984 (31 U.S.C. 3701 et seq. and other titles)

These laws require SBA to aggressively collect any fee payments which become delinquent. SBA must obtain your taxpayer identification number when you apply for assistance. If you receive a SBG guarantee, and do not pay the related fee assistance, SBA may take one or more of the following actions:

- Report the status of your payment delinquency to credit bureaus
- Hire a collection agency to collect your fee
- Offset your income tax refund or other amounts due to you from the Federal Government
- Suspend or debar you or your company from doing business with the Federal Government
- Refer your fee to the Department of Justice or other attorney for litigation
- Foreclose on collateral or take other action permitted

Immigrations Reform and Control Act of 1986 (Pub. L. 99-603)

If you are an alien who was in this country illegally since before January 1, 1982, you may have been granted lawful temporary resident status by the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service pursuant to the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 (Pub. L. 99-603). For five years from the date you are granted such status, you are not eligible for financial assistance from the SBA in the form of a loan or guaranty under section 7(a) of the Small Business Act unless you are disabled or a Cuban or Haitian entrant. When you sign this document, you are making the certification that the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 does not apply to you, or if it does apply, more than five years have elapsed since you have been granted lawful temporary resident status pursuant to such 1986 legislation.

Executive Order 12549, Debarment and Suspension (13 C.F.R. 145)

1. The prospective lower tier participant certifies, by submission of this proposal, that neither its nor its principals are presently debarred, suspended, proposed for debarment, declared ineligible, or voluntarily excluded from participation in this transaction by any Federal department or agency.
2. Where the prospective lower tier participant is unable to certify to any of the statements in this certification, such prospective participant shall attach an explanation to this proposal.

SURETY BOND GUARANTEE APPLICATION PROCEDURES

1. Applicant must contact a surety agency which participates in SBA's Surety Bond Guarantee Program. A list of participating surety agencies, SBA Area Office contacts, and instructions to apply for SBG assistance are on the Office of Surety Guarantees website at www.sba.gov/OSG/
2. The applicant must submit required forms and information to the surety agent of choice.
3. If the application is for final (performance and/or payment) bonds, it must be accompanied by the Contractor Fee check payable to SBA (or U.S. Small Business Administration)
 4. Upon completion of favorable underwriting, surety forwards all required documents, to the appropriate SBA area office.
5. The SBA Surety Bond Guarantee staff reviews the application, makes final determination, and notifies surety of its decision. SBA returns the countersigned Guarantee Agreement to the surety. If SBA declines to issue the guarantee, the check for the Contractor Fee is also returned to the surety.
6. If any adverse information develops subsequent to SBA's approval of the bond guarantee, surety may decline to issue the bonds.
