

(c) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(d) Ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

“Burden” means the total time, effort, or financial resources expended by persons to generate, maintain, retain, disclose or provide information to or for a Federal agency. This includes the time needed to review instructions; to develop, acquire, install and utilize technology and systems for the purpose of collecting, validating and verifying information, processing and maintaining information, and disclosing and providing information; to train personnel and to be able to respond to a collection of information, to search data sources, to complete and review the collection of information; and to transmit or otherwise disclose the information.

All written comments, with names and addresses, will be available for public inspection in the Main Interior Building, 1849 C Street, NW., Washington, DC during normal business hours, excluding legal holidays. If you wish us to withhold your personal information, you must prominently state at the beginning of your comment what personal information you want us to withhold. We will honor your request to the extent allowable by law. For an appointment to inspect comments, please contact Lisa Young by telephone on (202) 208-7586, or by e-mail at lisa_young@ios.doi.gov. A valid picture identification is required for entry into the Department of the Interior.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid Office of Management and Budget control number.

Dated: March 18, 2010.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Land Management

[LLWO250000.L12200000.PM0000]

Renewal of Approved Information Collection, OMB Control Number 1004-0119

AGENCY: Bureau of Land Management, Interior.

ACTION: 60-day notice and request for comments.

SUMMARY: In compliance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) announces its intention to request that the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) renew OMB Control Number 1004-0119 for the paperwork requirements in 43 CFR part 2930, which pertain to permits for recreation on public lands. The BLM is also proposing to revise Form 2930-1 (Special Recreation Application and Permit) to be used only as Special Recreation Application. OMB approval of the new Special Recreation Permit would not be required, since it would be completed by the BLM.

DATES: Please submit your comments to the BLM at the address below on or before May 24, 2010.

ADDRESSES: You may mail comments to: U.S. Department of the Interior, Bureau of Land Management, Mail Stop 401-LS, 1849 C St., NW., Washington, DC 20240, Attention: 1004-0119. You may also comment by e-mail at: Jean_Sonneman@blm.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: You may contact Judi Zuckert at 202-912-7093. Persons who use a telecommunication device for the deaf (TDD) may call the Federal Information Relay Service (FIRS) at 1-800-877-8339, to contact Ms. Zuckert. You may also contact Ms. Zuckert to obtain a copy, at no cost, of the regulations and forms that require this collection of information.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: OMB regulations at 5 CFR 1320, which implement provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. 3501-3521), require that interested members of the public and affected agencies be provided an opportunity to comment on information collection and recordkeeping activities (see 5 CFR 1320.8(d) and 1320.12(a)). This notice identifies information collections that are contained in 43 CFR part 2930. The BLM will request that the OMB approve this information collection activity, as revised with respect to Form 2930-1, for a 3-year term.

At present, Form 2930-1 is both an application and a permit for special recreational uses of public lands. We are proposing to revise Form 2930-1 to be used only as an application, because certain elements of a proposed activity or event in the application may differ from the actual terms of the final permit that is issued. Developing a separate permit would enable the BLM to clearly describe the permitted activity or event.

The BLM would complete the Special Recreation Permit upon review of the information supplied by the respondent on Form 2930-1. The new permit would have to be signed by representatives of both the BLM and the respondent in order to become effective, but merely signing a form does not constitute a burden, as defined by the Paperwork Reduction Act at 44 U.S.C. 3502(2). Accordingly, OMB clearance for the new Special Recreation Permit is not required.

Comments are invited on: (1) The need for the collection of information for the performance of the functions of the agency; (2) the accuracy of the agency's burden estimates; (3) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information collection; and (4) ways to minimize the information collection burden on respondents, such as use of automated means of collection of the information. A summary of the public comments will accompany the BLM's submission of the information collection requests to OMB.

The following information is provided for the information collection:

Title: Permits for Recreation on Public Lands (43 CFR part 2930).

Form: Form 2930-1, Special Recreation Permit Application.

OMB Control Number: 1004-0119.

Abstract: This notice pertains to information collections that are necessary for the management of recreation on public lands. The currently approved information collection consists of the collection of nonform information in accordance with 43 CFR part 2930, and Form 2930-1 (Special Recreation Permit Application and Permit). As discussed above, we are proposing to revise Form 2930-1 to be used only as a Special Recreation Permit Application.

Frequency: On occasion.

Currently Approved Number and Description of Respondents: 365,845 applicants for and holders of permits for recreational use of public lands managed by the BLM.

Currently Approved Reporting and Recordkeeping "Hour" Burden: 365,845 responses and 375,995 hours. The following chart details the individual components and respective hour burden estimates of this information collection request, as currently approved:

Regulation 43 CFR part (a)	Estimated number of responses annually (b)	Estimated time per response (hours) (c)	Estimated hours annually (b × c) (d)
43 CFR Part 2930, Subpart 2932: Special Recreation Application and Permit; Form 2930–1 and non-form information	1,450	8	11,600
43 CFR Part 2930, Subpart 2933: Recreation Use Permit for Use of Fee Areas	364,395	1	364,395
Totals	365,845	375,995

Currently Approved Reporting and Recordkeeping “Non-Hour Cost”

Burden: There is no currently approved annual non-hour cost burden for Control Number 1004–0119.

The PRA (44 U.S.C. 3501, et seq.) provides that an agency may not conduct or sponsor a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Until OMB approves a collection of information, you are not obligated to respond.

The BLM will summarize all responses to this notice and include them in the request for OMB approval. All comments will become a matter of public record. Before including your address, phone number, email address, or other personal identifying information in your comment, you should be aware that your entire comment—including your personal identifying information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us in your comment to withhold your personal identifying information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

Jean Sonneman,

Acting Information Collection Clearance Officer.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

National Park Service

Notice of Intent to Repatriate Cultural Items: Western Reserve Historical Society, Cleveland, OH

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

Notice is here given in accordance with the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA), 25 U.S.C. 3005, of the intent to repatriate cultural items in the possession of the Western Reserve Historical Society, Cleveland, OH, that meet the definitions of “sacred objects” and “objects of cultural patrimony” under 25 U.S.C. 3001.

This notice is published as part of the National Park Service’s administrative responsibilities under NAGPRA, 25 U.S.C. 3003 (d)(3). The determinations in this notice are the sole responsibility of the museum, institution, or Federal agency that has control of the cultural items. The National Park Service is not responsible for the determinations in this notice.

The three cultural items are a Double bladed dagger (Accession 42.1241); Chilkat blanket (No number); and Raven rattle (No number).

In 1867, the Western Reserve Historical Society was founded. Starting in 1894, book numbers were assigned consecutively to objects. In 1940, this practice was terminated, as the records for accessions were scant or non-existent. From 1940–1943, a large-scale inventory of the Society’s holdings was conducted and accession numbers were assigned to those objects with no prior book number or provenience. Although the Double bladed dagger has an accession number, it has no provenience information and the catalog card has only a physical description. Furthermore, the Chilkat blanket and Raven rattle were overlooked in the 1940 inventory process, and do not have accession numbers nor provenience information. All objects did not have a cultural affiliation listed.

Collaboration with the Cleveland Museum of Natural History aided in the possible cultural affiliation of the objects with the Tlingit and Haida. Photographs of the items and copies of catalog records were sent to various Alaskan Indian organizations for identification. The Central Council of the Tlingit & Haida Indian Tribes further identified the Double bladed dagger as “Shakáts”, the Chilkat blanket as “Naaxein”, and the Raven rattle as “Yéil Sheishoox.” Based on consultation the museum reasonably believes these cultural items are culturally affiliated with the Tlingit. Furthermore, the museum was also informed during consultation that the objects are considered to be both sacred and objects of cultural patrimony.

Officials of the Western Reserve Historical Society have determined that, pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001 (3)(C), the three cultural items described above are specific ceremonial objects needed by traditional Native American religious leaders for the practice of traditional Native American religions by their present-day adherents. Officials of the Western Reserve Historical Society also have determined that, pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001 (3)(D), the three cultural items described above have ongoing historical, traditional, or cultural importance central to the Native American group or culture itself, rather than property owned by an individual. Lastly, officials of the Western Reserve Historical Society also have determined that, pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001 (2), there is a relationship of shared group identity that can be reasonably traced between the sacred objects/objects of cultural patrimony and the Central Council of the Tlingit & Haida Indian Tribes.

Representatives of any other Indian tribe that believes itself to be culturally affiliated with the sacred objects/objects of cultural patrimony should contact Danielle R. Peck, Senior Registrar, Western Reserve Historical Society, 10825 E. Blvd., Cleveland, OH 44106, telephone (216) 721–5722, ext. 262, before April 26, 2010. Repatriation of the sacred objects/objects of cultural patrimony to the Central Council of the Tlingit & Haida Indian Tribes may proceed after that date if no additional claimants come forward.

The Western Reserve Historical Society is responsible for notifying the Central Council of the Tlingit & Haida
