II. Background

This policy provides guidance on determining eligibility for and duration of a temporary facility under the FEMA Public Assistance Program. As a result of major disasters and emergencies, services provided at public and private nonprofit (PNP) facilities may be disrupted to the extent that they cannot continue unless they are temporarily relocated to another facility. Applicants may request temporary facilities to continue that service.

Section 403 of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (Stafford Act), Public Law 93-288, as amended, authorizes FEMA to provide Federal assistance to meet immediate threats to life and property resulting from a major disaster. Specifically, Section 403(a)(3)(D) of the Stafford Act allows for the provision of temporary facilities for schools and other essential community services, when it is related to saving lives and protecting and preserving property or public health and safety. In the draft updated policy, FEMA is proposing to include libraries and other private nonprofit facilities that demonstrate they provide eligible health and safety services as eligible facilities for temporary relocation.

FEMA seeks comment on the proposed policy, which is available online at <http://www.regulations.gov> in docket ID FEMA-2010-0023. Based on the comments received, FEMA may make appropriate revisions to the proposed policy. Although FEMA will consider any comments received in the drafting of the final policy, FEMA will not provide a response to comments document. When or if FEMA issues a final policy, FEMA will publish a notice of availability in the Federal Register and make the final policy available at <http://www.regulations.gov>.
